Excerpt from The Death Valley Chuck Walla Vol 1 A Magazine for Men January the 1st 1907 The Chuck Walla is born of the desert where the mountains dip into Death Valley where vegetation ceases to grow where the land is made of sand and borax the Chuck Walla lives and flourishes The heat baked rocks of the Funeral range the ledges of ore and malapi the sagebrush and greasewood all contribute to its existence Among these elements the Chuck Walla is at home It is a part of the desert always has been and will continue to be while the rocks last and the sun shines This is a tip on the low down Don t be an Indian Don t try to dislodge the animal A pull and a copper wire won t do the work The Chuck Walla has a purpose It may seem that its chief business in life is to bask in the sun catching flies the while or scratching a hole in the sand to expose a new vein of copper If so that s the Chuck Walla s concern just so it catches the flies successfully and scratches with energy at the hidden lodes Like other creatures of the desert the Chuck Walla is guided entirely by instinct It does what it lists and what to it seems right making no apologies giving no accounting except to its Creator never lifting its tail to wave as a signal of distress It fights its own battles in its own way It is no hypocrite It may amuse the initiated and startle the uninitiated but once it has taken its stand it cannot be changed The size power or dignity of its tormentor will carry no weight If necessary the Chuck Walla will bite and this bite is not pleasant About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Death Valley and the Amargosa Richard E. Lingenfelter,1988-01-11 This is the history of Death Valley where that bitter stream the Amargosa dies It embraces the whole basin of the Amargosa from the Panamints to the Spring Mountains from the Palmettos to the Avawatz And it spans a century from the earliest recollections and the oldest records to that day in 1933 when much of the valley was finally set aside as a National Monument This is the story of an illusory land of the people it attracted and of the dreams and delusions they pursued the story of the metals in its mountains and the salts in its sinks of its desiccating heat and its revitalizing springs and of all the riches of its scenery and lore the story of Indians and horse thieves lost argonauts and lost mine hunters prospectors and promoters miners and millionaires stockholders and stock sharps homesteaders and hermits writers and tourists But mostly this is the story of the illusions the illusions of a shortcut to the gold diggings that lured the forty niners of inescapable deadlines that hung in the name they left behind of lost bonanzas that grew out of the few nuggets they found of immeasurable riches spread by hopeful prospectors and calculating con men and of impenetrable mysteries concocted by the likes of Scotty These and many lesser illusions are the heart of its history
