The Deconstruction Of Time:

The Deconstruction of Time David Wood,2001 Double rethinking seeks to rethink time in terms of our experience of it and attempts to rethink our selves in terms of the results of that initial rethinking This book undertakes a critical reformulation of the project through discussions of Derrida Nietzsche Husserl and Heidegger The Deconstruction of Time David Wood,1989 The Deconstruction of Time David Wood,1991 The Deconstruction of Time David Charles Wood,1985 The Deconstruction of Time and the Displacement of Desire ,1978 The Deconstruction of Time and the Replacement of Desire Donna Przybylowicz,1978 Deconstruction in Context Mark C. Taylor,1986 There is no rigorous and effective deconstruction without the faithful memory of philosophies and literatures without the respectful and competent reading of texts of the past as well as singular works of our own time Deconstruction is also a certain thinking about tradition and context Mark Taylor evokes this with great clarity in the course of a remarkable introduction He reconstitutes a set of premises without which no deconstruction could have seen the light of day Jacques Derrida This invaluable philosophical sampler brings together many of the threads out of which deconstruction is woven taylor s anthology does not make deconstruction easy much more usefully it provides a meticulous guide to the sources and significance of the difficulties Barbara E Johnson The book will be of great value as a set of readings with authoritative explanation for all those interested in the current relations of literature and philosophy It is the best book of its kind I know J Hillis Miller Yale University The Myths of Time Hugh Rayment-Pickard,2004 An original and stimulating examination by Hugh Rayment Pickard of the theology of time and history drawing from art literature philosophy theology and everyday life to show how we experience time Publisher Towards a Post-structuralist Temporal Theory Emily P. Dentzer,1987 Hydropower River Management and Salmon Recovery Issues on the Columbia/Snake River System United States. Congress. House. Committee on Resources,2001 Time in Archaeology Simon Holdaway,LuAnn Wandsnider,2008-09-26 A tightly focused group of papers on the deconstruction and significance of the concept of time with a historical background on the development of time perspectivism and a range of case studies and examples After reading this you may never think about time in quite the same way Back to the Future of the Body Dominic Janes,2013-02-14 What can the past tell us about the future s of the body The origins of this collection of papers lie in the work of the Birkbeck Institute for the Humanities which has been involved in presenting a series of international workshops and conferences on the theme of the cultural life of the body The rationale for these events was that in concepts as diverse as the cyborg the questioning of mind body dualism the contemporary image of the suicide bomber and the patenting of human genes we can identify ways in which the future of the human body is at stake This volume represents an attempt not so much to speculate about what might happen but to develop strategies for bodily empowerment so as to get back to the future of the body The body it is contended is not to be thought of as an object or a sign but as an active participant in the shaping of cultural formations And this is emphatically not an exercise in digging corpses out of the historical archive The question is rather what can past lived and thought experiences of the body tell us about what the body can be come The continuing vitality of debate around the body was proven by the range and depth of the papers presented at the workshop on which this volume is based does the body have a future Our overall theme required contributors to think through embodiment in the past This they did with considerable interdisciplinary vigour rigorousness and imagination Prof Donna Dickenson Director Birkbeck Institute of the Humanities

JBSP British Society for Phenomenology,1990 Proceedings of the International Conference on Smart and Sustainable Built Environment (SASBE 2024) Ali GhaffarianHoseini,Amirhosein Ghaffarianhoseini,Farzad Rahimian,Mahesh Babu Purushothaman,2025-04-19 This book presents peer reviewed articles from the International Conference of Sustainable Development and Smart Built Environments SDSBE2024 held from 6 8Nov at Auckland New Zealand It encapsulates cutting edge research in Sustainable Development and Smart Built Environments featuring global scholars Encompassing diverse themes the book explores sustainable urban development governance and policy emphasizing urban greening and climate resilience It delves into innovative approaches for sustainable transport intelligent infrastructure and community well being The integration of Data Science AI and IoT for optimizing built environments is a focal point alongside advancements in digital twins and OpenBIM Social aspects including equity and indigenous perspectives are explored along with health considerations in urban settings The proceedings serve as a comprehensive resource reflecting the multifaceted advancements driving sustainable and smart urban futures Chaucer and the Ethics of Time Gillian Adler,2022-02-15 Geoffrey Chaucer wrote at a turning point in the history of timekeeping but many of his poems demonstrate a greater interest in the moral dimension of time than in the mechanics of the medieval clock Chaucer and the Ethics of Time examines Chaucer s sensitivity to the insecurity of human experience amid the temporal circumstances of change and time passage as well as strategies for ethicising historical vision in several of his major works While wasting time was sometimes viewed as a sin in the late Middle Ages Chaucer resists conventional moral dichotomies and explores a complex and challenging relationship between the interior sense of time and the external pressures of linearism and cyclicity Chaucer s diverse philosophical ideas about time unfold through the reciprocity between form and discourse thus encouraging a new look at not only the characters ruminations on time in the tradition of St Augustine and Boethius but also manifold narrative sequences and structures including anachronism Time After Time David Wood,2007-07-09 In Time After Time David Wood accepts without pessimism the broad postmodern idea of the end of time Wood exposes the rich stratified and non linear textures of temporal complexity that characterize our world Time includes breakdowns repetitions memories and narratives that confuse a clear and open understanding of what it means to occupy time and space In these thoughtful and powerful essays Wood engages Kierkegaard Nietzsche Heidegger and Derrida to demonstrate how repetition can preserve sameness and how creativity can interrupt time Wood s original thinking about time charts a course through the breakdown in our trust in history and progress and poses a daring and productive way of doing phenomenology and deconstruction

Im.pri.mat.ur ,1996      The Moment Thomas Wägenbaur,1993 Written representations of momentary phenomena such as the Fall the kairos epiphany the nunc stans the sublime dialectical and historical moments of change and moments of deferral are always doomed to fail However representational failures at writing have always been turned into a performative success more writing The author s reading of the various textualizations of the moment is not historical but genealogical Foucault and not typological but economical Derrida it reveals the moment as an inevitable trope the deconstruction of a representational moment in a given text reinscribes this moment as the text s performative momentum This ever shifting meaning of the moment has been followed through literary and philosophical texts from Plato to Beckett      Rāvi ,2003
The New Yearbook for Phenomenology and Phenomenological Philosophy Steven Galt Crowell,Burt C. Hopkins,2001 Provides an annual international forum for phenomenology and phenomenological philosophy in the spirit of Edmund Husserl s work This yearbook features a range of essays by these respected philosophers
