Dust and Diamonds Kristen Rose, 2003-06-23 Dana Hutton thought her life was perfect She was very wealthy and engaged to marry a famous movie star She was envied everywhere she went everywhere that is except for the small and sleepy Midwestern town of Riverdale It was here that she was stranded while on her way west to plan her wedding Being a lady of high society accustomed to city life she refused to have anything to do with the unsophisticated farmers that lived in the rural town She shunned them and their advice getting herself into a few predicaments in which only they could help her out Even when she ridiculed and snubbed them they still helped her They still cared about her Why was that Even when she finally got out of the town she was still wondering what made the townspeople so different Why were they so caring Her journey most certainly doesn't end there She finds out what overall makes the difference in people's hearts and why one sleepy little town can draw like a magnet and change the course of a person's life forever
