The Gift Of Perseverance

Saint Augustine of Hippo, Aeterna Press

The Gift Of Perseverance:

A Treatise on the Gift of Perseverance Saint Augustine of Hippo, Aeterna Press, In the first part of the book he proves that the perseverance by which a man perseveres in Christ to the end is God's gift for that it is a mockery to ask of God that which is not believed to be given by God. Moreover that in the Lord's prayer scarcely anything is asked for but perseverance according to the exposition of the martyr Cyprian by which exposition the enemies to this grace were convicted before they were born. He teaches that the grace of perseverance is not given according to the merits of the receivers but to some it is given by God's mercy to others it is not given by His righteous judgment. Aeterna Press

A Treatise on the Gift of Perseverance St. Augustine, 2018-08-06 In the first part of the book he proves that the perseverance by which a man perseveres in Christ to the end is God's gift for that it is a mockery to ask of God that which is not believed to be given by God. Moreover that in the Lord's prayer scarcely anything is asked for but perseverance according to the exposition of the martyr Cyprian by which exposition the enemies to this grace were convicted before they were born

The Love of God Poured Out: Grace and the Gifts of the Holy Spirit in St. Thomas Aquinas John Meinert, 2018-05-01 What is the relationship between the gifts of the Holy Spirit and the action of grace? John Meinert's The Love of God Poured Out enters into the major positions and debates within Thomism to forge a new synthesis on this topic within the greater body of scholarship existing today. Meinert reads Aquinas's thought on the gifts of the Holy Spirit and grace in an integral and analogous way. Not only does The Love of God Poured Out aid scholars in understanding Aquinas's thought on these two issues it also once more clarifies the truth that the Holy Spirit and his gifts are neither a devout appendix to moral theology nor a pious nod to tradition. They are the heart and height of the moral life, a life lived subditus Deo.

On the Gift of Perseverance Saint Augustine, Saint Augustine of Hippo, 2015-06-08 Augustine the man with upturned eye with pen in the left hand and a burning heart in the right as he is usually represented is a philosophical and theological genius of the first order towering like a pyramid above his age and looking down commandingly upon succeeding centuries. He had a mind uncommonly fertile and deep bold and soaring and with it what is better a heart full of Christian love and humility. He stands of right by the side of the greatest philosophers of antiquity and of modern times. We meet him alike on the broad highways and the narrow footpaths on the giddy Alpine heights and in the awful depths of speculation wherever philosophical thinkers before him or after him have trod. As a theologian he is facile princeps at least surpassed by no church father schoolman or reformer. With royal munificence he scattered ideas in passing which have set in mighty motion other lands and later times. He combined the creative power of Tertullian with the churchly spirit of Cyprian the speculative intellect of the Greek church with the practical tact of the Latin. He was a Christian philosopher and a philosophical theologian to the full.

Answer to the Pelagians Saint Augustine, Roland J. Teske, 1999 The four works printed in this volume reply to a series of problems which various Catholic monks of Africa and Gaul found with Augustine's doctrine of grace and predestination. They do not deal directly with Pelagianism but are clearly related to the anti Pelagian works of Augustine in their discussions of the doctrines on grace and predestination The monks who raised these questions however posed them as difficulties they faced in accepting these doctrines not as an overt desire to contradict Augustine and the Church as the heretics did The first two works Grace and Free Choice and Rebuke and Grace respond to problems at Hadrumetum where a group of monks thought that Augustine s teaching on grace destroyed free choice and human merits and eliminated the possibility of anyone giving rebukes and exhortations The second two works The Predestination of the Saints and The Gift of Perseverance reply to the letters of Prosper of Aquitaine and Hilary They reported to Augustine the objections of various persons in monastic groups in Gaul who held that the beginning of faith and the initiative for salvation came from the human will not from God These monks also rejected Augustine s doctrine that divine predestination and the grace of final perseverance are utterly gratuitous gifts of God In his responses to the monks concerns Augustine depends on Scripture to prove his points He encourages his questioners to pray for understanding and to thank God for the understanding they have so far which is surely a free gift of God as are he emphasizes grace and eternal life

Handbook of Catholic Dogmatics 6 Matthias Joseph Scheeben,2024-01-16 Building on Book Five s considerations of the person and redemptive deed of Christ Book Six of Matthias Joseph Scheeben s Handbook of Catholic Dogmatics offers his account of the subjective realization of salvation through Christ s bestowal of grace This stands as Scheeben s fullest treatment of the much contested notion of actual grace and the issues related to the sixteenth century de auxiliis controversy concerning predestination and how God moves the human will Progressing in three parts Book Six commences with an analysis of the concept of actual grace establishing how God can move the will without compelling it and providing a richly developed context for understanding God s motive influence The second part examines three principal heresies concerning grace namely Pelagianism Semi Pelagianism and the Reformation doctrines using these as a basis for evaluating the Catholic dogmas about grace that were articulated against them Finally in the third part Scheeben explores the necessity of grace in light of man s fallen condition and his supernatural end
