A. DeVoto, 1957 Year of Decision Bernard A. De Voto, 1988-12 Utah Historians and the Reconstruction of Western History Gary Topping, 2003 Among historians of Utah and the American West few names have greater resonance than Bernard DeVoto Dale Morgan Juanita Brooks Wallace Stegner and Fawn Brodie Each of these writers made enduring contributions not only to our knowledge of the American West but also to our view of the region and its history In many ways their writing set the standard for scholarship and interpretation and their influence is still felt today Yet they were not flawless As Gary Topping explains in this the first comprehensive appraisal of their work each had serious shortcomings DeVoto and Stegner master storytellers distorted their histories with excessive use of literary and artistic techniques Morgan the thorough researcher failed to see larger contexts and interpretive possibilities Brooks courageous in finding damning new information on the Mountain Meadows massacre stopped short of drawing conclusions that might alienate her from her fellow Mormons and Brodie psychobiographer extraordinaire nonetheless succumbed to reading too much into the lives of her subjects based on her own emotions and conflicts All five writers experienced Mormon Utah in the formative stages of their lives and whether they wanted to or not fashioned their work on the American West under that indelible influence Topping shows ultimately how despite weaknesses each created exemplary models of diligent research and narrative elegance while establishing new traditions in western historical scholarship The Best Land Under Heaven Michael Wallis, 2017-06-06 Longlisted for the Andrew Carnegie Medal for Excellence Finalist for the Oklahoma Book Award A Publishers Weekly Holiday Guide History Pick A book so gripping it can scarcely be put down Superb New York Times Book

Review WESTWARD HO FOR OREGON AND CALIFORNIA In the eerily warm spring of 1846 George Donner placed this advertisement in a local newspaper as he and a restless caravan prepared for what they hoped would be the most rewarding journey of a lifetime But in eagerly pursuing what would a century later become known as the American dream this optimistic yet motley crew of emigrants was met with a chilling nightmare in the following months their jingoistic excitement would be replaced by desperate cries for help that would fall silent in the deadly snow covered mountains of the Sierra Nevada We know these early pioneers as the Donner Party a name that has elicited horror since the late 1840s With The Best Land Under Heaven Wallis has penned what critics agree is destined to become the standard account Washington Post of the notorious saga Cutting through 160 years of myth making the expert storyteller True West compellingly recounts how the unlikely band of early pioneers met their fate Interweaving information from hundreds of newly uncovered documents Wallis illuminates how a combination of greed and recklessness led to one of America's most calamitous and sensationalized catastrophes The result is a fascinating horrifying and inspiring Oklahoman examination of the darkest side of Manifest Destiny

The Uneasy Chair Wallace Stegner, 2015-02-18 Bernard DeVoto was a wild intellectual from the Rocky Mountains a rebel iconoclast and idealist who fled his stifling small town for the intellectual freedom and community of Harvard While he settled eastward in his career as a novelist professor editor historian and critic he continued to love to a point of passion western openness freedom and society National Book Award and Pulitzer Prize winning author and fellow westerner Wallace Stegner's life intersected with DeVoto's many times first by accident and later by friendship and example They were kindred spirits both westerners by birth upbringing and demeanor novelists by vocation teachers by necessity and historians and conservationists by a sheer compulsion inspired by the region that shaped them
