Utrumque jus in peciis Frank Soetermeer,1997 Betrifft die Handschriften Codd 18 und 33 der Burgerbibliothek Bern

Creation of the Ius Commune John W. Cairns,2010-07-30 This book discusses in detail how medieval scholars reacted to the casuistic discussions in the inherited Roman texts particularly the Digest of Justinian It shows how they developed medieval Roman law into a system of rules that formed a universal common law for Western Europe Because there has been little research published in English beyond grand narratives on the history of law in Europe this book fills an important gap in the literature With a focus on how the medieval Roman lawyers systematised the Roman sources through detailed discussions of specific areas of law The (History of Medieval Canon Law) History of Medieval Canon Law in the Classical Period, 1140-1234 Wilfried Hartmann,Kenneth Pennington,2008 This latest volume in the ongoing History of Medieval Canon Law series covers the period from Gratian s initial teaching of canon law during the 1120s to just before the promulgation of the Decretals of Pope Gregory IX in 1234 Histoire du droit savant (13e-18e siècle) Robert Feenstra,2023-07-14 This third selection of articles by Robert Feenstra complements the two previously published continuing his studies of doctrines of private law and of texts related to university teaching from the 13th century into the early modern period In the section on private law some pieces deal with the Middle Ages while others focus on Hugo Grotius Property is again an important topic but this time joined by legal personality foundations and negligence vicarious liability included The studies on the history of texts are mainly concerned with works dating from the 14th and 15th centuries One is devoted to a little known civil law teacher at the University of Orleans and his commentary on a part of the Digest The four others deal with treatises belonging to the so called vulgarisation of the droit savant medieval Roman and Canon law most of these include important contributions to the history of early printing incunabula and post incunabula Cette troisi me s lection d articles de Robert Feenstra compl te les deux pr c dentes elle constitue la suite de ses tudes sur les doctrines de droit priv et sur des textes se rapportant l enseignement universitaire du XIIIe jusqu au XVIIIe si cle Dans la section consacr e au droit priv quelques articles s occupent en premier lieu du moyen ge d autres focalisent sur Hugo Grotius La propri t est de nouveau un sujet important mais elle se trouve en compagnie de la personnalit juridique notamment par rapport aux fondations et de la responsabilit civile y compris la responsabilit du fait d autrui Les tudes sur l histoire des textes concernent surtout quelques ouvrages du XIVe et du XVe si cle La premi re est consacr e un professeur de droit civil peu connu de l universit d Orleans et son commentaire sur l une des trois parties du Digeste Les quatre autres s occupent de trait s appartenant la vulgarisation du droit savant droit romain et droit canonique au moye The Cambridge Companion to Roman Law David Johnston,2015-02-23 This book reflects the wide range of current scholarship on Roman law covering private criminal and public law Inscribing Knowledge in the Medieval Book Rosalind Brown-Grant,Patrizia Carmassi,Gisela Drossbach,Anne D. Hedeman,Victoria Turner,Iolanda Ventura,2020-01-20 This collection of essays examines how the paratextual apparatus of medieval manuscripts both inscribes and expresses power relations between the producers and consumers of knowledge in this important period of intellectual history It seeks to define which paratextual features annotations commentaries corrections glosses images prologues rubrics and titles are common to manuscripts from different branches of medieval knowledge and how they function in any particular discipline It reveals how these visual expressions of power that organize and compile thought on the written page are consciously applied negotiated or resisted by authors scribes artists patrons and readers This collection which brings together scholars from the history of the book law science medicine literature art philosophy and music interrogates the role played by paratexts in establishing authority constructing bodies of knowledge promoting education shaping reader response and preserving or subverting tradition in medieval manuscript culture
