The Law Times Reports of Cases Decided in the House of Lords, the Privy Council, the Court of Appeal ... [new Series]. ,1909    The Law Times Reports ,1909    William Pereira James Steele,2002 In his time William Pereira was the epitome of the public image of an architect a rugged individualist as well as a generalist who defined rather than mimicked emerging social values He designed every building type imaginable from houses to hospitals as well as inventing some of his own such as the Television Studios for CBS in Los Angeles For the expansion of Los Angeles International Airport he convinced the authorities to adapt the facility to jet planes before jet travel was commonplace he was a visionary whose wide ranging interests and pragmatism surfaced at a time when a growing nation most needed those qualities A long overdue tribute to William Pereiras talent and influence this book features in depth behind the scenes views of his best known projects captured in the stunning photography of Julius Shulman and Wayne Thom Features on CBS The USC master plan UC Irvine The Doha master plan the Transamerica Tower in San Francisco and the Los Angeles International Airport characterize the spectacular scope of his career This first complete chronology of his work is a telling record of his vast achievements    Irvine Ellen Baker Bell,Irvine Historical Society,2011 The story of Irvine goes back more than 200 years to a time when it was a vast sprawling ranch extending from the brush covered foothills of the Santa Ana Mountains to the dramatic bluffs of the Pacific coast Since that time the Irvine Ranch has experienced a revolutionary change from pastoral wide open spaces to one of the most successful planned communities in the nation All along the way there were people whose vision shaped the transformation of Irvine Among them were the members of the Irvine family who for nearly a century were stewards of a ranch that amounted to more than one fifth of modern day Orange County The Irvine of today owes its success to the ideals from its past the determination to develop the immense potential of the land while still preserving its natural beauty    Reforming Suburbia Ann Forsyth,2005-03-14 Reforming Suburbia is a fascinating book Forsyth examines the planned new towns of Columbia Irvine and The Woodlands through dozens of interviews with developers designers and residents as well as extensive archival research She tackles complex public and private investments and asks how negotiations proceeded between government and real estate developers all the while keeping an eye on the issues of race gender environmental sustainability and marketing This is required reading for anyone interested in the practice of American urban development Dolores Hayden author of Building Suburbia Green Fields and Urban Growth 1820 2000 Ann Forsyth significantly enriches the fields of planning and architectural history with her thorough analysis of the social ecological and economic successes and shortcomings of these three prominent new communities She offers valuable insights and wonderfully captures the idealistic spirit of the late 1960s and early 1970s Frederick Steiner author of Human Ecology    Blue Sky Metropolis Peter J. Westwick,2012-06-04 Like citrus oil movies radio and television aerospace helped create Southern California and embody its values Blue Sky Metropolis launches an entirely fresh consideration of an iconic industry that answered the immemorial hunger of the human race for flight and the future Kevin Starr University of Southern California Blue Sky Metropolis presents an intriguing survey of a unique time in Southern California history when cheap land and benign weather lured massive aerospace enterprises to the region eventually serving as home to nearly half of the nation's defense and space fabricators Before there was a Silicon Valley high tech dreamers were on the loose in the Southland creating inventions as diverse as the Voyager planetary spacecraft and the Stealth bomber These highly readable essays help us understand how it happened how Southern California shaped aerospace and vice versa Charles Elachi Director Jet Propulsion Laboratory Peter Westwick has assembled a rich collection of essays that tell a wonderful story about the importance of the aerospace industry to Southern California and the importance of Southern California to the aerospace industry There's technology sociology economics geography anthropology and much more woven through the chapters It's an ambitious project but it succeeds in being interesting informative and entertaining Michael Rich President and CEO The RAND Corporation California.
