Craggs, 1999 This collection of essays seeks to reflect the many aspects of the life and work of William Walton The book covers the literary influences in his music as well as his well known compositions such as Belshazzar s Feast Troilus and Cressida and Facade William Walton Neil Tierney, 1984 Sir William Walton s character was both complex and baffling Although hailed as one of the musical giants of the twentieth century he often seemed to regard his own achievements with a brooding unease and scepticism He could by turns be aggressive or gentle moody or high spirited with a satirical humour that spared neither his friends nor his enemies In his younger days he loved two beautiful aristocratic women one a German baroness the other a chatelaine of English society yet he was born of middle class parents in Oldham and until the Sitwells adopted him knew little of the glittering sophisticated world which they inhabited In the realm of music he was largely self taught and remained all his life an indifferent performer on the piano but his technical brilliance in such works as Belshazzar s Feast and the Violin Concerto rivalled that of the greatest masters of the art Although he made no attempt to create a new compositional style or language his music spiced by harmonic asperities and many ingenious touches came to be regarded as belonging to the European mainstream At its best it was never less than magnificent The need for a carefully researched and clear sighted biography of Walton cannot be exaggerated Neil Tierney has provided one giving a vivid often extremely moving portrait of Sir William as composer and man His book draws upon a wide range of material including previously unpublished letters some written by Walton himself and the reminiscences of friends and collaborators who knew him intimately With its comprehensive analyses of all Walton s works this book will not only captivate the general reader but also provide a valuable source of information for the musical scholar or student Dust jacket All of the Above I Richard Baldwin Cook,2008 A history of the ancestry of Elizabeth Huey Taylor Cook tracing various genealogical lines more than four hundred years Individuals and couples are placed in their historical context showing their participation in the events of their time Revolutionary War Civil War early settlements in Massachusetts Virginia and Kentucky Special attention is given to the role of various ancestors in the Indian wars of the 1600s and 1700s Many details about the families ownership of slaves are included Various individuals participation in church and community activities from the earliest colonial settlements to and including the 20th century are also covered The main surnames which are treated include TAYLOR HUEY MOORE CROUCH MAYO BALDWIN SCOTT DAWSON PUTNAM PORTER HAWTHORNE DOYNE WHARTON STONE WINSTON GAINES WATTS GOUGE GRAVES WILLIAMS HUNT JEWETT JUETT MASON PENDLETON GAMEWELL SWAINE PARSONS BOOTH WOODBURY DWIGHT WALTON MAVERICK HARRISON LYTTLETON VALLETTE MARMADUKE A total of about 120 surnames are traced International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature TheInternational Who s Who of Authors and Writersoffers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters The 20th Century O-Z Frank N.
