Window On Tomorrow:

The Window Trimmer, 1903     The Boys' Outfitter, 1927     Window Maker Charles W. Allen, 2002 This book was written by Nauvoo Temple window and door maker Charles W Allen It quotes directly from his personal journal that he kept daily during the project It describes overwhelming responsibilities associated with the invitation to build the temple windows and front doors It shares a few personal experiences that the author had over his lifetime to be ready to accept the challenge It relates how others were prepared and available to do the work with him     Merchants Record and Show Window, 1930

Widen the Window Elizabeth A. Stanley, PhD, 2019-09-24 I don't think I've ever read a book that paints such a complex and accurate landscape of what it is like to live with the legacy of trauma as this book does while offering a comprehensive approach to healing from the foreword by Bessel van der Kolk A pioneering researcher gives us a new understanding of stress and trauma as well as the tools to heal and thrive Stress is our internal response to an experience that our brain perceives as threatening or challenging Trauma is our response to an experience in which we feel powerless or lacking agency Until now researchers have treated these conditions as different but they actually lie along a continuum Dr Elizabeth Stanley explains the significance of this continuum how it affects our resilience in the face of challenge and why an event that is stressful for one person can be traumatizing for another This groundbreaking book examines the cultural norms that impede resilience in America especially our collective tendency to disconnect stress from its potentially extreme consequences and override our need to recover It explains the science of how to direct our attention to perform under stress and recover from trauma With training we can access agency even in extreme stress environments In fact any maladaptive behavior or response conditioned through stress or trauma can with intentionality and understanding be reconditioned and healed The key is to use strategies that access not just the thinking brain but also the survival brain By directing our attention in particular ways we can widen the window within which our thinking brain and survival brain work together cooperatively When we use awareness to regulate our biology this way we can access our best uniquely human qualities our compassion courage curiosity creativity and connection with others By building our resilience we can train ourselves to make wise decisions and access choice even during times of incredible stress uncertainty and change With stories from men and women Dr Stanley has trained in settings as varied as military bases healthcare facilities and Capitol Hill as well as her own striking experiences with stress and trauma she gives readers hands on strategies they can use themselves whether they want to perform under pressure or heal from traumatic experience while at the same time pointing our understanding in a new direction     Atlanta, Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow John R. Hornady, 1922     Tomorrow's Homes Francis Vaux Wilson, 1939     Watson's Magazine Thomas Edward Watson, 1910     Smoky Mountain Lovely Angel Ruth Kitts, 2026-02-26 When Macy Jo set out to open an art gallery in the Smoky Mountains with the help of her artist grandmother Priscilla she never suspected she would be faced with a mysterious thief who is after a painting with a secret or with the kidnapping of her grandmother and a black bear cub but she isn't in it alone because her new romantic interest is eager to help her solve the mystery and save the day. A break in on the opening day of an art gallery in the Great Smoky Mountains has the owner Macy Jo searching for answers to a mystery surrounding a painting from long ago. Macy meets Noah who repairs her broken window and she wonders if he might be the one to repair her broken heart as well. Does Macy's grandmother know a secret concerning the painting the thief is after? Could the answers be found in Priscilla's journal? It takes us back to the fun times in post-war America where Priscilla meets Brinnon Benjamin who left the Netherlands on the last ship out before his homeland was bombed. He cares for Priscilla but she has a strong connection to her faith. Can he ever get past his resentment over losing his parents to believe in a loving God? Can Macy solve the mystery and locate the painting in time to save her grandmother and the bear cub?
