Windows Of Grace:

The Windows of Grace Church Ralph Sadler Meadowcroft,1973      O, Light Divine! Grace Episcopal Church,2014 O Light Dvine The Stories Behind the Windows of Grace Church contains descriptions for each window at Grace written by Rev Michael W McCann featuring Biblical stories and symbolism behind each window From the earliest recorded times people have expressed their religious faith not only in words but also in pictorial and symbolic paintings and sculpture These artistic expressions of faith and hope appeal to the senses and the mind and the heart in a way that words alone rarely do Like paintings and sculpture stained glass windows serve to focus devotion to teach and also give aesthetic pleasure The story of stained glass in Grace Church begins in late 1953 with an inquiry to J R Lamb Studios concerning the design creation of one window Thirty four years later an entire sequence of 50 windows from The Lamb of God in teh New Jerusalem o The Celtic Cross designed by Lamb Studios reached completion Since that time numerous windows have been added or moved to new locations within an enlarged building The antique or pot metal stained glass used in Grace Church comes alive only when light passes through it therefore is never static From Dawn to dusk the colors change each gaining or losing prominence with the changing light according to its own characteristics As of this writing there are 66 stained glass windows at Grace Church
