Worlds Stephen Daniels, Dydia DeLyser, J. Nicholas Entrikin, Doug Richardson, 2012-03-15 There has been a remarkable resurgence in the past decade of intellectual interplay between geography and the humanities in both academic and public circles Terminology and concepts such as space place landscape mapping and geography are becoming pervasive as conceptual frameworks and core metaphors in recent publications by humanities scholars and well known writers Envisioning Landscapes Making Worlds examines the depth and complexity of human meaning invested in maps attached to landscapes and embedded in the spaces and places of modern life The clashing and blending of cultures caused by globalization and the new technologies that profoundly alter human environmental experience suggest new geographical narratives and representations that are explored here by a multidisciplinary group of authors With contributions from leading scholars this text is essential reading for scholars and students seeking to understand the new synergies and interconnectedness of geography and the humanities      Information Activism Cait McKinney, 2020-07-17 For decades lesbian feminists across the United States and Canada have created information to build movements and survive in a world that doesn't want them In Information Activism Cait McKinney traces how these women developed communication networks databases and digital archives that formed the foundation for their work Often learning on the fly and using everything from index cards to computers these activists brought people and their visions of justice together to organize stores and provide access to information Focusing on the transition from paper to digital based archival techniques from the 1970s to the present McKinney shows how media technologies animate the collective and unspectacular labor that sustains social movements including their antiracist and trans inclusive endeavors By bringing sexuality studies to bear on media history McKinney demonstrates how groups with precarious access to control over information create their own innovative and resourceful techniques for generating and sharing knowledge      Women Activists and Civil Rights Leaders in Auto/Biographical Literature and Films Delphine Letort, Benaouda Lebdaï, 2018-05-03 This collective book offers new insight on the genres of biography and autobiography by examining the singular path of those deemed to be outsiders such as Winnie Mandela Ida B Wells Malcolm X and Harvey Milk Its specific focus on these female leaders and civil rights activists who refused to be constrained by gender race and class shifts attention away from the great men of history and places it solely on those who have transformed their personal lives into a fight for collective goals With an interdisciplinary approach that looks at literature cinema and cultural studies Women Activists and Civil Rights Leaders in Auto Biographical Literature
