Re-thinking Travel Writing Ben Stubbs, Lee Mylne, 2024-03-30 This book stems from the question that we as co authors grappled with for the past 3 plus years while in our own periods of stasis during the pandemic What place does the travel writing genre hold in a post COVID world With the massive interruptions to travel and travel writing across 2020 2023 as the pandemic forced us indoors and into isolation it also raised many other pertinent questions about the practice of and future of travel writing Part of the prompt for this book comes from the post pandemic assumption that in an ecologically fraught less mobile and more uncertain world there may not be a place for travel writing as we know it to exist in any meaningful way We examine the problems and solutions apparent for travel writing as it engages with a period of re thinking prompted by the pandemic though necessary for a plethora of other reasons as well As academics and travel writing practitioners with decades of experience in the field we offer a unique perspective on this topic as we have the in the field experience of professional travel writers and we have the academic grounding to better understand the history theoretical concerns and contradictions of the genre to provide a more in depth perspective to our travel writing colleagues This grounding allows us to access a unique and valuable perspective for Re thinking Travel Writing The Journey of a Genre for academics aspiring travel writers and contemporary colleagues in the field

Theories on the Move Şebnem Susam-Sarajeva, 2006 Within translation studies books on translating conceptually dense texts such as philosophical or theoretical writings are remarkably few Although the translation of literature has been a favourite topic for many decades the translation of theories on literature has been neglected The phrase theories of translation is everywhere but translation of theories is a rare sight On the other hand the term translation has become a commonplace in literary and cultural studies yet usually as a rhetorical figure describing the fate of those who struggle between two worlds and two languages such as migrants or women Not much attention has been paid to the role of translation proper in contemporary circulation of ideas The book addresses these gaps in translation studies and in literary studies for the first time by examining two specific cases where translation strategies and patterns crucially influenced the reception of imported schools of thought By examining the importation of structuralism and semiotics into Turkish and of French feminism into English it invites the readers to think about the impact of translation on the transmission of ideas across linguistic cultural borders and power differentials It is therefore of particular interest to the scholars working in translation studies in literary and cultural theory and in gender studies

FAUNA 2018 and FLORA 2020 focused on strategies of rapprochement between the arts and the sciences based on linguistic artistic premises their latest work interrogates the relationship between the science of fiction and the fiction of science Fiction Fiction presents a relational practice oriented model of operative fiction which not only encounters the supposedly unthinkable other but integrates it as an active and necessary part of thought and creative processes Literature and as artistic research following on from FAUNA 2018 and FLORA 2020 Artistic reflections on contemporary philosophy and its sociocritical contexts With contributions by Lucia D Errico Sabina Holzer Elisabeth Sch fer and Ferdinand Schmatz
