An Investigative Cinema Fabrizio Cilento, 2018-07-17 This book traces the development of investigative cinema whose main characteristic lies in reconstructing actual events political crises and conspiracies These documentary like films refrain from a simplistic reconstruction of historical events and are mainly concerned with what does not immediately appear on the surface of events Consequently they raise questions about the nature of the truth promoted by institutions newspapers and media reports By highlighting unanswered questions they leave us with a lack of clarity and the questioning of documentation becomes the actual narrative Investigative cinema is examined in relation to the historical conjunctures of the economic miracle in Italy the simultaneous decolonization and reordering of culture in France the waves of globalization and neoliberalism in post dictatorial Latin America and the post Watergate post 9 11 climate in US society Investigative cinema is exemplified by the films Salvatore Giuliano The Battle of Algiers The Parallax View Gomorrah Zero Dark Thirty and Citizenfour

The Doomed Detective Stefano Tani, 1984 Tani s dissertation is the most stunningly original and intelligent I have encountered in 25 years of teaching wrote the late novelist John Gardner Tani s argument says that the mysterious story as written by Hammett and others and touted by the French existentialists led to a new kind of novel and the old style mystery as written by for example Agatha Christie seemed a literary dead end a conservative if not reactionary game In recent years Tani shows the seeming dead end has led to the most important literary movement now visible the ironic intellectual fiction of people ranging from Borges and Barth to Calvino and he proves that the spearhead of this movement is Italian fiction as influenced by American mystery fiction At first glance the argument seems outrageous The brilliance of Tani's thesis besides the original outrageous idea is that he solidly and systematically makes his case
