Transgressing Borders:

Transgressing Borders Suzan Ilcan, Lynne Phillips, 1998-10-23 Comprises 13 papers which explore the concept of boundaries in relation to the family gender and culture Questions the value or legitimacy of boundaries and shows how by transgressing these borders the conventional codes that govern social relations are challenged Comprises four sections covering the role of the state in shaping family forms conceptions of women s space and time in household organization the role of colonialism in defining household and kin relations and the impact of work and changing economies on the shaping of households Transgressing Borders ,2001 Border Transgression and Reconfiguration of Caribbean Spaces Myriam Moïse, Fred Réno, 2020-09-28 A dividing line the border is usually perceived in terms of separation and rupture It is a site of tension par excellence at the origin of contestations negotiations and other conflicting patterns of inclusion exclusion This book takes us through an exploration of the border in the Caribbean region both geographically fragmented and strongly tied through its history culture and people This collection of scholarly articles interrogates the border within the specificities of the Caribbean context its socio political dynamics and its literary and artistic representations The transgression of borders and the consequent reconfiguring phenomena are thus applied to the Caribbean and its diasporas through a transdisciplinary approach The book combines a multiplicity of research fields including Social Sciences Cultural Geography Geopolitics Cultural and Literary Studies hence it offers a global perspective on the topic and transcends disciplinary categories The contents of the book also stretch beyond geographic and linguistic borders as the contributors come from diverse scholarly backgrounds affiliations linguistic areas and research expertise Toward a New Art of Border Crossing Ananta Kumar Giri, Arnab Roy Chowdhury, David Blake Willis, 2024-11-05 Boundaries borders and margins are related concepts and realities and each of these can be conceptualized and organized in closed or open ways with degrees of closure or openness The logics of stasis and closure as well as cults of exclusivist and exclusionary sovereignty are reflected and embodied in the closed xenophobic conceptualization and organization of boundaries borders and margins But an open conceptualization of the borderlands where mixing and hybridity take place at a rapid even dizzying pace gives rise to Creolization at the threshold of sovereignties which can also be imagined At present our border zones are spaces of anxiety ridden security arrangements violence and death The existing politics of boundary maintenance is wedded to a cult of sovereignty at various levels which produces bare lives bodies and lands We need the new art of border crossing to be defined by the notion of camaraderie and shared sovereignties and non sovereignties Border zones can also be zones of meetings communication transcendence and festive celebration of the limits of our identities Thus we need a new art and politics of boundary transmutation transformation and transcendence in the broadest possible sense that entails the production of spatial scalar somatic cognitive affective and spiritual transitions The Palgrave Handbook of Intermediality Jørgen Bruhn, Asun López-Varela Azcárate, Miriam de Paiva Vieira, 2023-12-01 This handbook provides an extensive overview of traditional and emerging research areas within the field of intermediality studies understood broadly as the study of interrelations among all forms of communicative media types including transmedial phenomena Section I offers accounts of the development of the field of intermediality its histories theories and methods Section II and III then explore intermedial facets of communication from ancient times until the 21st century with discussion on a wide range of cultural and geographical settings media types and topics by contributors from a diverse set of disciplines It concludes in Section IV with an emphasis on urgent societal issues that an intermedial perspective might help understand

Minor Universality / Universalité mineure Markus Messling,Jonas Tinius,2023-08-21 The circulation and entanglements of human beings data and goods have not necessarily and by themselves generated a universalising consciousness The global and the universal in other words are not the same The idea of a world society remains highly contested Our times are marked by the fragmentation of a double relativistic character the inevitable critique of Western universalism on the one hand and resurgent identitarian and neo nationalistic claims to identity on the other Sources of an argumentation for a strong universalism brought forward by Western traditions such as Christianity Marxism and Liberalism have largely lost their legitimation All the while manifold and situated narratives of a common world that re address the universal are under way of being produced and gain significance This volume tracks the development and relevance of such cultural and social practices that posit forms of what we call minor universality It asks Where and how do contemporary practices open up concrete settings so as to create experiences reflections and agencies of a shared humanity With contributions by Isaac Bazi Anil Bhatti Jean Luc Chappey Elsie Cohen Leyla Dakhli Souleymane Bachir Diagne Nicole Fischer Albert Gouaffo Stefan Helgesson Fatma Hotait Christopher M Hutton Ananya Jahanara Kabir Mario Laarmann Rukmini Bhaya Nair Olivier Remaud Gis le Sapiro B n dicte Savoy Maria Anna Schiffrers Laurens Schlicht Sergio Ugalde Quintana H l ne Thierard Khadija von Zinnenburg Carroll The Applied Theatre Reader Tim Prentki, Sheila Preston, 2013-10-31 The Applied Theatre Reader is the first book to bring together new case studies of practice by leading practitioners and academics in the field and beyond with classic source texts from writers such as Noam Chomsky bell hooks Mikhail Bakhtin Augusto Boal and Chantal Mouffe This book divides the field into key themes inviting critical interrogation of issues in applied theatre whilst also acknowledging the multi disciplinary nature of its subject It crosses fields such as theatre in educational settings prison theatre community performance theatre in conflict resolution and reconciliation interventionist theatre theatre for development This collection of critical thought and practice is essential to those studying or participating in the performing arts as a means for positive change Transgressing Borders with Human Geography Huib Ernste, 2002 Shifting Borders Emily Butterworth, Kathryn Robson, 2001 This volume containing selected papers from a conference held by the Department of French in the University of Cambridge in 1999 addresses the exciting and challenging figure of the shifting border in modern French literature and literary theory Using a variety of critical approaches the contributors map the fluctuating borders in specific literary texts and explore how these moving boundaries reflect on their practice of literary analysis Inspired by the ideas of European and American thinkers including Giorgio Agamben Jacques Derrida Julia Kristeva Jacques Lacan and Jean Fran ois Lyotard they consider three major areas of current concern the construction of identity the conceptualisation of literary genres and the demarcation of geographical and cultural domains Applying their insights to a wide ranging corpus of francophone texts this volume analyses the work both of canonical figures such as Mallarm Proust and Zola and of lesser known writers such as Aim C saire Assia Djebar and St John Perse Transgressing Borders with Human Geography Huib Ernste, Katholieke Universiteit Nijmegen, 2002 The Global Challenge and Marginalization Márcio Moraes Valença, 2008 Marginality is often seen as a reflection of division in which there is an unequal relationship of economic and political power between two extremes In this way it is a common thing to find oppositional couples like North South Rich Poor Homogenous Heterogenous Centre Periphery Inclusion Exclusion Developed Underdeveloped and New Old in much of the literature dealing with marginality

These oppositions come about out of a socially and politically unbalanced society which is organised according to the differentiation of individuals in a hierarchical exclusionary fashion In this book there are 25 chapters written by 36 academics from 27 universities located in 14 countries and in 4 continents on this fascinating subject matter Monsters, Goddesses and Cyborgs Nina Lykke, Rosi Braidotti, 1996-06-15 It is divided into four sections covering science as a whole the new technologies of the postmodern era bio medical discourses and nature A distinguished cast of contributors explores the central feminist concerns in each arena through the central metaphors of monster mother goddess and cyborg They look at the consequences of gynogenesis postmodern eco buddhism in healthcare sexual violence in cyberspace the postmodernization of menopause the dolphin as androgyne and feminist environmentalism Hell on the Border S.
