presents a new model of the human brain with its theatrical cinematic and animal elements It also develops a theory of rasa catharsis as the clarifying of emotions within and between spectators of the stage or screen drawing on Eastern and Western aesthetics as well as current neuroscience It focuses on the inner movie theater of memories dreams and reality representations involving developmental stages as well as the hall of mirrors ape egos and body swapping identifications between human beings Finally the book shows how ironic twists onscreen especially of contradictory emotions might evoke a reappraisal of feelings helping spectators to be more attentive to their own impulses Through this interdisciplinary study scholars artists and general readers will find a fresh way to understand the potential for interactive mindfulness and yet cathartic backfire between human brains in cinema in theater and in daily life

Swienkowski,2008-07 Merely Words of Inspiration was written because of an awakening of my spiritual nature which inspired me I would hear different phrases during the day at work on television or just having a casual conversation during the day I was given an idea and began to write such as the following article Tell it Like It Is or Sugarcoated Jesus never sugarcoated anything He always told the truth the whole truth When we do not tell it like it is we are doing the work of the adversary He is the author of confusion which is his truth The book was also written to enhance our spiritual awareness It was written to let you see that the everyday phrases such as another article titled Can You Hear Me Now can be inspirational in the right circumstances Here is an insert from the following article Have we ever thought about Jesus saying

Can You Hear Me Now Why can't we hear Him Is it because we are listening to the world and not for His voice It is written I am the Good Shepherd and I know my sheep and am known of mine And other sheep I have which are not of this fold them also I must bring and they will hear my voice and there shall be one fold and one shepherd John 10 14 16 This is something to get excited about being in heaven with our Lord and Savior Have a Blessed Day 14 Bhaskar Chattopadhyay,2014-01-27
