Tell Tale Signs:

Tell Tale Signs Janice Williamson, 1991 An innovative feminist mix of poetry prose criticism and visual images Defying pat answers interrupting the status quo the vision in Tell Tale Signs uncovers the role of gender and politics in writing culture violence against women and the complexities of female desire and sexuality Early Bird Special!!! and 174 Other Signs That You Have Become a Senior Citizen Jeanne Piedmonte, Mike Piedmonte, 2003-04-09 Wouldn't you like to know if you've become a Senior Citizen Wouldn't your spouse or your children like to know if you've become one Wouldn't they like to know if they've become seniors Just what are the signs that cause men and women to one day have to take a deep breath and admit I've become a Senior Citizen When looking for the answer disregard the AARP cards and senior discounts And also the Social Security checks and Medicare payments as being the only criteria Becoming a Senior Citizen is not just the attainment of an arbitrary age It's also the result of an individual's mind set Here then are 175 signs and 36 essays some hilarious some nostalgic and some bittersweet that will help you see if you've become a bona fide member of the fastest growing segment of American society School Design Together Pamela Woolner, 2014-07-17 The time is ripe for interdisciplinary collaborative approaches to school design Whatever the current funding limitations we still need to think about how we design organise and use space in schools for learning and teaching This edited book ensures that we don't start from ground zero in terms of good design Including chapters from researchers and practitioners in architecture and education it assesses describes and illustrates how education and environment can be mutually supportive The centrality of participation and collaboration between architects educators and school users holds these diverse contributions together The book embodies the practice as well as the principle of interdisciplinary working Organised in two parts this volume considers how schools are designed and used with chapters looks at current and past school environments in the UK US and Europe It then questions how the learning environment can be improved through participatory design processes with contributors from design and education backgrounds offering both theoretical understanding and practical ideas Written without subject specific jargon or assumptions it can be used by readers from either an architectural or educational background bridging the on going communication gap between education and design professionals Design and education professionals alike will appreciate the practical information which shows how to change or improve a learning environment focus on evidence based research case studies and chapter topics including schools from across the primary and secondary sectors Off the Hook Helen Bethune, 2023-03-08 First published in 1985 Off the Hook describes all the signs and symptoms of drug addiction alcoholism or compulsive gambling in teenagers but more importantly suggests constructive ways parents can help Teenage disorder and especially addiction can cause serious family damage Fear guilt and shame can paralyse effective action and even make matters worse Helen Bethune drawing on research among recovered addicts troubled teenagers and suffering families throws new light on this problem There is hope and there are positive steps which parents can take to help their children towards recovery This book is highly informative and essential reading not only for the afflicted but for all parents fearful of the prevalence of drugs among youngsters today and for teachers and social workers at every level
