important art would strengthen regime legitimacy and authority they generously supported Peking opera's perpetuation in exile. Valuing mainland Chinese culture above Taiwanese culture, the Nationalists generously supported Peking opera to the virtual exclusion of local performing traditions despite their wider popularity. Later, as Taiwan turned toward democracy, the island's own indigenous products became more highly valued, and Peking opera found itself on a tenuous footing. Finally, in 1995, all of its opera troupes and schools formerly supported by the Ministry of Defense were dismantled.
