They Made History:

100 People Who Made History Ben Gilliland,2012-01-30 There are nearly 7 billion people in the world today We are living longer healthier and better lives than anyone who has gone before And this is the result of a whole chain of people who have invented or discovered something that has changed our world Where would we be without inventors philosophers economists politicians explorers and other ideas people Some of our historical heroes were lone geniuses but many were influenced by other great thinkers and ideas There would be no Facebook without the internet and no internet with computers And there could be no computers without the great mathematicians and philosophers of ancient times So who s the Genius Mark Zuckerberg or Pythagoras We think it s both This is why every spread features a panel called They couldn t have done it without revealing the people who made earlier contributions to the cause With chapters on medicine and food processes entertainment and culture there s something in 100 People Who Made History for everyone Full of true life stories and famous celebs 100 People proves that history can be exciting and relevant So let s hear it for the heroes from throughout the ages those who save lives those who improve lives and those who make our lives just that bit more enjoyable A Decade

that Made History Denis Huber,Council of Europe,1999-01-01 From the fall of the Berlin Wall to Kosovo covering the unification of Germany the break up of the USSR Yugoslavia as well as the velvet divorce of Czechoslovakia these last ten years have seen great upheavals in our continent on a scale probably unparalleled since the fall of the Roman empire The Council of Europe has played a special role in all of this as the structure best qualified to welcome the new European democracies its membership has soared from 23 to 41 including 17 central east European countries between 1990 1999 Truly a decade which made history one which the reader is invited to retrace in these pages We Also Made History

Meenakshi Moon,Urmila Pawar,2004-12-30 Originally published in Marathi in 1989 this contemporary classic details the history of women s participation in the Dalit movement led by Dr B R Ambedkar for the first time Focusing on the involvement of women in various Dalit struggles since the early twentieth century the book goes on to consider the social conditions of Dalit women s lives daily religious practices and marital rules the practice of ritual prostitution and women s issues Drawing on diverse sources including periodicals records of meetings and personal correspondence the latter half of the book is composed of interviews with Dalit women activists from the 1930s These first hand accounts from more than forty Dalit women make the book an invaluable resource for students of caste gender and politics in India A rich store of material for historians of the Dalit movement and gender studies in India We Also Made History remains a fundamental text of the modern women s movement 100 Events That Made History DK,2016-02-09 Applying quirky illustrations and fun

you wouldn't be divided into five chapters: Momentous Moments, Battling It Out, Weird or What, Nasty Nature, and The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly. Major moments that have changed the course of history are showcased together with minor incidents to give full context to each event. From the Gold Rush to the moon landing and the Great Fire of London to the sinking of the Titanic, 100 Events That Made History is perfect for book reports, school projects, or anytime reading to satisfy and educate curious minds.

Maps That Made History Lez Smart, 2005-04-30 Few people can resist the appeal of old maps and plans. Even in these days of disposable mapping from satellite navigation to customized road directions at the click of a mouse, the historical map continues to present a unique perspective on our changing world. Here we explore 25 glorious examples. The emphasis is on the story behind the map: what it reveals about its creator and users, from the first explorers to the railway builders. This thought-provoking collection features maps that chart societies as well as land, sea, and skies; maps that have influenced and inspired; and perhaps most revealing of all, maps that misrepresent.

When Running Made History Roger Robinson, 2018-05-17 Robinson takes readers on a globe-trotting tour that combines a historian's insight with vivid personal memories going back to just after World War II. From experiencing the 1948 Austerity Olympics in London as a young spectator to working as a journalist in the Boston Marathon media center at the moment of the 2013 bombings, Robinson offers a fascinating first-person account of the tragic and triumphant moments that impacted the world and shaped the modern sport. He chronicles the beginnings of the American running boom, the emergence of women's running, the end of the old amateur rules, and the redefinition of aging for athletes and amateurs. With an intimate perspective and insightful reporting, Robinson captures major historical events through the lens of running. He recounts running in Berlin at the time of German reunification in 1990, organizing a replacement track meet in New Zealand after the disastrous 2011 earthquake, and the triumph of Ethiopian athlete Abebe Bikila in the 1960 Olympics in Rome. As an avid runner, journalist, and fan, Robinson brings these global events to life and reveals the intimate and powerful ways in which running has intersected with recent history.
