Things To Make For Children:

100 Things for Kids to Make and Do Petra Boase, Bettina Graham, 1996 Children's and adult's activities Bulletin Massachusetts Library Club, 1911 Raising Self-Esteem in Primary Schools Margaret Collins, 2009-09-18 Children with low self-esteem will have difficulty in partaking in classroom lessons and succeeding. If we want to help children in the primary school to achieve the positive outcomes set out in the Every Child Matters agenda, we need to ensure all children have a healthy self-esteem. This book seeks to give adults in schools tools to look at the way they could enhance self-esteem in children. The book comes with an accompanying CD Rom which contains inset sessions for all adults in the school workshops specifically aimed at non-teaching personnel including mid-day supervisors, sessions for teachers and classroom assistants, classroom lessons and activity sheets for the children which can form part of your school's personal, social and health education (PSHE) programme. This book is a whole-school training programme for raising self-esteem and is essential reading for all those working in primary education. Margaret Collins is a former headteacher of infant and first schools. She is now Senior Visiting Fellow in the School of Education at the University of Southampton. She researches children's perceptions of health education topics, writes teaching materials for children's books and articles on PSHE.

True Latter-Day Saints' Herald, 1924 The family magazine of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints Developing Children's Behaviour in the Classroom Sonia Burnard, 2012-11-12 The authors of this text suggest that teachers need to be able to cope with pupil behaviour before they can even begin to deliver the National Curriculum. Often classes contain both stated and un-stated children, those officially recognized as having behavioural problems and un-stated but difficult children. Teachers have few strategies to deal with the kind of behaviour that these children present as little if any of their training is allotted to classroom and child management. The authors aim to raise awareness of behavioural needs in the classroom and avoid exclusions. They do this by encouraging school staff to work together to develop policies which will encourage good behaviour.

The Effective Primary School Classroom Joan Dean, 2005 This accessible book provides student teachers and new teachers with a good overview of how to organise the busy primary classroom.
