Using Methods In The Field A Practical Introduction And Casebook:

Using Methods in the Field Victor C. De Munck, Elisa Janine Sobo, 1998 This text shows the leaps of inspiration the challenges the thought processes and the errors inherent in completing a field work project Research Methods for Anthropological Studies of Food and Nutrition Janet Chrzan, John Brett, 2017-02-01 The dramatic increase in all things food in popular and academic fields during the last two decades has generated a diverse and dynamic set of approaches for understanding the complex relationships and interactions that determine how people eat and how diet affects culture These volumes offer a comprehensive reference for students and established scholars interested in food and nutrition research in Nutritional and Biological Anthropology Archaeology Socio Cultural and Linguistic Anthropology Food Studies and Applied Public Health Culture and Meaning in Health Services Research Elisa J Sobo, 2016-06-16 A practical guide to applying interpretive qualitative methods to pressing healthcare delivery problems Understanding Well-Being in the Oldest Old Leonard W. Poon, Jiska Cohen-Mansfield, 2011-04-11 The demographic and social structure of most industrialized and developing countries are changing rapidly as infant mortality is reduced and population life span has increased in dramatic ways In particular the oldest old 85 population has grown and will continue to grow This segment of the population tends to suffer physical and cognitive decline and little information is available to describe how their positive and negative distal experiences habits and intervening proximal environmental influences impact their well being and how social and health policies can help meet the unique challenges they face Understanding Well Being in the Oldest Old is the outcome of a four day workshop attended by U S and Israeli scientists and funded by the U S Israel Bi National Science Foundation to examine both novel and traditional paradigms that could extend our knowledge and understanding of the well being of the oldest old

Nursing and Family Caregiving Anne Neufeld, Margaret Harrison, 2009-11-24 Designated a Doody s Core Title T his text is a truly amazing microanalytic compendium of social support strategies in different family configurations in different context and ethnic groups and filling different types of needs From the Foreword by Janice M Morse RN PhD FAAN University of Utah This book serves as an authoritative reference for health care practitioners and researchers concerned with mobilizing support for individuals caring for a disabled adult or child family member The authors integrate numerous types of research to provide a comprehensive compendium of best practices for social support within vulnerable populations This book provides a wealth of insight into the experience of family caregivers and describes the importance of support Nurses practitioners researchers and professionals will find this book useful as they provide care to patients plan programs or develop policies intended to assist family caregivers Armed with this essential knowledge of the best methodological approaches to family caregiving readers will have both the insight and tools to optimize caregiving across the range of hospices treatment facilities and home care Key Highlights Information on supportive interactions reciprocity and the obligations of social support Illustrative examples of the supportive and nonsupportive interactions that real life men and women caregivers have experienced Discussions of social support from the informal social networks of kin and friends Information on social support within minority populations including the elderly children and immigrants Knowledge into Action Danny P. Wallace, Connie J. Van Fleet, 2012-06-12 The only book currently available that comprehensively integrates research and evaluation for evidence based library and information science practice Numerous books cover research and evaluation in general but not within the context of library and information science Many others cover the field of library and information science overall but with little focus on research Knowledge into Action Research and Evaluation in Library and Information Science offers in a single volume an expert introduction to these two distinct yet deeply interrelated phases of information gathering as they are practiced in the information sciences Knowledge into Action takes readers through the core principles working processes and practical tools for conducting and evaluating research in library and information science enhancing the presentation with examples informational graphics study questions and exercises directly relevant to this field It is a welcomed resource for students and scholars who want to use appropriate techniques for gathering and assessing research as well as information professionals looking to improve services at their libraries or information centers The book is also designed to educate practitioners as consumers of the research and evaluation literature and as active participants in professional conferences meetings and workshops
