From Ash to Fire Carolyn Humphreys,2006 This excellent introduction to one of the most important spiritual classics of the Christian tradition is now reprinted in a new edition by popular demand Full of solid insight keen intuition and wise counsel for the spiritual journey the book situates St Teresa s work in the context of the Carmelite tradition and of a contemporary understanding of holistic spirituality One chapter is devoted to each of the seven spiritual mansions of The Interior Castle From Ash to Fire is particularly useful for those who are at the beginning of the spiritual journey but has many valuable insights for all readers Carolyn Humphreys uses easy to follow lay person s language to describe each spiritual stage relating it to the corresponding human dimension You may recognize yourself in many of her vivid examples that relate to everyday experiences She delicately brings to light that authentic humanness comes through a person who is dependent on God and interdependent on others and thus guides you along the way with sound advice Carolyn Humphreys is a registered occupational therapist and a Secular Discalced Carmelite The Teaching and Study of Islam in Western Universities Paul Morris,William Shepard,Paul Trebilco,Toni Tidswell,2013-11-26 Public interest in the religion of Islam and in Muslim communities in recent years has generated an impetus for Western Universities to establish an array of Institutes and programs dedicated to the study of Islam Despite the growth in number of programs dedicated to this study very little attention has been paid to the appropriate shape of such programs and the assumptions that ought to underlie such a study. The Teaching and Study of Islam in Western Universities attempts to address two central questions that arise through the teaching of Islam. Firstly, what relation is there between the study of the religion of Islam and the study of those cultures that have been shaped by that religion? Secondly, what is the appropriate public role of a scholar of Islam? After extensive discussion of these questions, the authors then continue to address the wider issues raised for the academic community, having to negotiate between competing cultural and philosophical demands. This edited collection provides new perspectives on the study of Islam in Western Institutions and will be an invaluable resource for students of Education and Religion in particular Islamic Studies.
