Where Is God? Julián Carrón, 2020-02-20 Should we battle a plural and relativistic society by raising barriers and walls or should we accept the opportunity to announce the Gospel in a new way This is the challenge Christians are facing today In an extended interview with Vatican expert Andrea Tornielli Juli n Carr n examines the historical moment we are living through in order to revive the essential core of Christian faith Starting from the realization that the world is experiencing an evolution in which the difficulty of finding shared values and natural morality makes sincere dialogue between believers and non believers challenging Carr n reflects on the possibility of communicating the essence of the Christian faith in a form that can inspire interest in modern times Addressing the central questions concerning the announcement of Christian faith in today s less regimented society Where Is God discovers and rediscovers the contents of Christianity and asks how they can be witnessed again in a society that is not yet post Christian but potentially headed in that direction

Thirty-two Questions with the Catholic Laymen's Association of Georgia Caesar Augustus Yarbrough, 1920 The Catechism Explained Francis Spirago, 1899 This Catechism is divided into three parts The first part treats of faith the second of morals the third of the means of grace In the first part Our Lord appears in His character of Teacher in the second in His character of King and in the third in His character of High Priest And since this Catechism proposes as its primary object to answer the question for what purpose are we here upon earth thereby emphasizing and giving prominence to man's high calling and destiny it is especially suited to the present day when the pursuit of material interests self indulgence and pleasure engrosses the attention of so many This Catechism is in fact nothing more nor less than an abstract of Our Lord's teaching and may be called a guide book for the Christian on the road to heaven Preface The Canada Law Journal James Patton, W.
