Thinking Clearly About Death:

Thinking Clearly about Death Jay F. Rosenberg, 1998-01-01 Jay Rosenberg's penetrating and persuasively argued analysis of the central metaphysical and moral questions pertaining to death has been updated and revised to expand and deepen several of its key arguments and to address conceptual developments of the past fifteen years. Among the topics discussed are Life After Death, The Limits of Theorizing, The Limits of Imagination, Death and Personhood, Values and Rights, Mercy Killing, Prolonging Life, Rational Suicide, and One's Own Death. Rosenberg's prose is lucid, lively, thoroughly absorbing, and accessible to introductory level readers. Essential reading for anyone interested in reflecting on this engaging topic.

The Tibetan Book of Living and Dying Sogyal Rinpoche, 2009-10-13 A magnificent achievement. In its power to touch the heart to awaken consciousness, The Tibetan Book of Living and Dying is an inestimable gift. San Francisco Chronicle: A newly revised and updated edition of the internationally bestselling spiritual classic The Tibetan Book of Living and Dying written by Sogyal Rinpoche is the ultimate introduction to Tibetan Buddhist wisdom. An enlightening, inspiring, and comforting manual for life and death that the New York Times calls "The Tibetan equivalent of Dante's The Divine Comedy," this is the essential work that moved Huston Smith, author of The World's Religions, to proclaim, "I have encountered no book on the interplay of life and death that is more comprehensive, practical, and wise."

Life and Death in Sing Sing Lewis Edward Lawes, 1928 The author, the warden of Sing Sing Prison, knows the criminal as he is and portrays him not in a sensational or romantic way but as a human being who has violated the law. A History of English Dramatic Literature to the Death of Queen Anne Adolphus William Ward, 1899 Connecticut Reports

Thomas Benson Pollock, 1894 Reports of cases, 1892 The Insurance Law Journal, 1930 Reports of all decisions rendered in insurance cases in the federal courts and in the state courts of last resort. "The" Spectator George Atherton Aitken, 1898 Safe Passage Richard E. Simmons, III, 2006-02 Suggests that as mature, responsible adults we must recognize that until we choose to examine and accept the philosophical implications of death, we actually forego the opportunity of experiencing the rich promises of life.

Women and Death Beth A. Bassein, 1984-03-23 Bassein examines the pervasive linkage between women's sexuality and death in Western thought and literature and concludes that there is no reasonable basis for much of it. She first explores how language reveals and reinforces the bond between women and death. She then discusses traditional Christianity as a vehicle for perpetuating this tie and demonstrates that negative attitudes and brutality associated with women find expression in otherwise commendable works of art. The author examines nineteenth and twentieth-century fiction and poetry to show the different ways writers have handled women in sexual situations. Bassein concludes that tracing the origins and prevalence of the automatic association and seeking alternatives help us recognize the irrational and unconscious tendencies that are at the basis of stereotype formation and tacit acceptance of brutality
