difference into similarity and upon the ways in which translation responds to the challenges of individual and collective remembrance Each chapter explores these interlingual but also intercultural interrelational and interdisciplinary issues mapping a journey of translation that begins in the impact of translation upon the work of each author continues into moments of linguistic translation untranslatability and mistranslation within their texts and ultimately becomes an exploration of social political and affective untranslatability In these journeys the creative and critical potential of translation emerges as a potent often violent but always illuminating vision of the possibilities of differentiation and connection generation and memory in temporal linguistic cultural and political terms
