

A scenic view of a mountain range with a valley below, overlaid with a semi-transparent purple text box. The text box contains a quote about anger and love. The background shows a valley with a river and mountains in the distance.

We hurt each other because it's the only way we're permitted to show our anger. When our choices are taken from us, the fire builds within. Sometimes I feel like we might burn down the world to cindery bits, with our love, our rage, and everything in between.

If God Is Good: Why Do We Hurt? Randy Alcorn,2010-05-18 The encouragement we crave when we re most in need Out of the deepest hurts of the human condition Randy Alcorn brings into clear focus our most pressing questions about evil and suffering including those that wrench our souls when we or someone we love is victimized by evil or assaulted by disease He faces these questions with seasoned sensitivity skillful insight and a heart of compassion He dodges none of the difficulties and never lapses into platitudes hand wringing or oversimplification On this troubling but inescapable topic you ll find frank acknowledgment of the inherent limitations that set humanity apart from the God who has none There s also generous real encouragement that brings God nearer in our understanding when we need His comfort the most And amid our heavy doubts and swirling confusion on this topic Randy Alcorn points us ultimately toward Jesus as the only answer bigger than the questions

Why Do We Hurt Ourselves? Baptiste Brossard,2021-12-22 A sociological analysis of self injury the causes of it and the conditions surrounding those who commit it Why does an estimated 5% of the general population intentionally and repeatedly hurt themselves What are the reasons certain people resort to self injury as a way to manage their daily lives In Why Do We Hurt Ourselves sociologist Baptiste Brossard draws on a five year survey of self injurers and suggests that the answers can be traced to social more than personal causes Self injury is not a matter of disturbed individuals resorting to hurting themselves in the face of individual weaknesses and difficulties Rather self injury is the reaction of individuals to the tensions that compose day after day the tumultuousness of their social life and position Self harm is a practice that people use to self control and maintain order to calm down or to avoid going haywire or breaking everything More broadly through this research Brossard works to develop a perspective on the contemporary social world at large exploring quests for self control in modern Western societies
