Understanding Reception A Backdrop To:

Receptive Ecumenism and the Call to Catholic Learning Paul Murray, 2010-05-06 This volume proposes a fresh strategy for ecumenical engagement Receptive Ecumenism that is fitted to the challenges of the contemporary context and has already been internationally recognised as making a distinctive and important new contribution to ecumenical thought and practice Beyond this the volume tests and illustrates this proposal by examining what Roman Catholicism in particular might fruitfully learn from its ecumenical others Challenging the tendency for ecumenical studies to ask whether explicitly or implicitly What do our others need to learn from us this volume presents a radical challenge to see ecumenism move forward into action by highlighting the opposite question What can we learn with integrity from our others This approach is not simply ecumenism as shared mission or ecumenism as problem solving and incremental agreement but ecumenism as a vital long term programme of individual communal and structural conversion driven like the Gospel that inspires it by the promise of conversion into greater life and flourishing The aim is for the Christian traditions to become more not less than they currently are by learning from or receiving of each other s gifts The 32 original essays that have been written for this unique volume explore these issues from a wide variety of denominational and disciplinary perspectives drawing together ecclesiologists professional ecumenists sociologists psychologists and organizational experts Understanding Reception Frederick M. Bliss, 1991 Theological Dialogue with Classical Pentecostals Jelle Creemers, 2015-09-24 The last two decades have witnessed the growing participation in theological dialogues of non institutional free church movements This poses a serious challenge to 21st century ecumenism since ecclesial realities and internal diversity of these movements impede fruitful dialogue in the classical manner The present volume addresses fundamental aspects of this challenge by a critical study of an exemplary case of such dialogues the International Roman Catholic Classical Pentecostal Dialogue 1972 2007 This unique study builds both on primary archival sources and on earlier research on the IRCCPD After providing an ecumenical profile of the Classical Pentecostal dialogue partner Creemers demonstrates how fair representation of the Classical Pentecostal movement has been pursued in the course of the dialogue Next he gives attention to the ecumenical method of the IRCCPD First the development of a dialogue method hinging on hard questions is traced which has allowed a balanced theological exchange between the dialogue partners Regarding theological method it is demonstrated that both partners showed a willingness to experiment together by integrating sources of theological knowledge typically distrusted in their own traditions In conclusion the analyses are integrated in an overview of challenges and opportunities for dialogue with the Classical Pentecostal movement in the context of ongoing discussions on ecumenical method Pentecostalism and Christian Unity, Volume 2 Wolfgang Vondey, 2013-03-28 This book is the follow up volume to Pentecostalism and Christian Unity Ecumenical Documents and Critical Assessments The first volume documented the history and ecumenical engagement of Pentecostals during the twentieth century This new collection traces the ecumenical developments narratives and conversations during the first decade of the twenty first century The ecumenical community and Pentecostals have consistently lamented the absence of a comprehensive gathering of resources for both groups This particular volume provides two significant assets in this regard 1 documentation of new and emerging conversations that have not yet produced official reports and 2 official reports from continuing conversations The book begins with an overview of a century of Pentecostal participation in Christian unity Part One contains ecumenical narratives on the Joint Consultative Group of Pentecostals and the World Council of Churches Lutherans and Pentecostals the Global Christian Forum and Christian Churches Together in the USA Part Two contains the extensive reports from the official dialogue of Pentecostals with the Roman Catholic Church the World Alliance of Reformed Churches and the Oneness Trinitarian Pentecostal dialogue This collection presents an invaluable resource for teachers scholars and pastors interested in engaging the global Christian arena from the worldwide and ecumenical perspectives of Pentecostalism

The Confluence of Law and Religion Mark Hill,Celia Kenny,Russell Sandberg,2016-04-21 Examines the interdisciplinary development of law and religion with a particular focus on Professor Norman Doe s pioneering role The Recovery of Doctrine in the Contemporary Church Richard Heyduck,2002 Heyduck examines the false options on doctrine that modernity has offered the church especially his own tradition United Methodism and suggests ways to get beyond this impasse
