Two Flags For France:

Under Two Flags Ouida,1871      Australia's War with France Richard James,2017-09-05 1941 Great Britain is fighting for its very existence France has surrendered and installed Marshal P tain an ageing reactionary as head of a hostile new government at Vichy The Allied outpost in Egypt and the Suez Canal its strategic jewel are threatened on both sides To the west Rommel is rampaging through North Africa To the east the Germans are arming rebels and fostering an uprising in British Iraq Churchill s cabinet is reeling after disastrous campaign in Greece There are fears of a German takeover in Vichy controlled Syria and Lebanon where a languishing French colonial army may fall in line with the Nazis Churchill orders a disgruntled General Wavell to take the offensive assuming that the French will not put up a fight against an Allied show of force The only troops available are a division of Australians the 7th untested recruits digging ditches in the Egyptian desert This is the story of how the 7th Division came to fight against the Army of the Levant Australia against France in the rocky hills of Lebanon and the barren wastes of Syria Contrary to Churchill s expectations the French resisted viciously The Australians won the war but at the price of more than 400 young men sons of Anzacs who had fought to defend France in the trenches of the western Front The British were embarrassed the campaign was forgotten and the Australians who fought were dubbed the silent men No contemporary Australian historian has studied the conflict British and French accounts exist but fail to do justice to the Australian contribution Through interviews with the veterans archival records and on the ground research this book seeks to understand a neglected campaign and give it a proper place in Australian history      "The" Flags of the World Frederick Edward Hulme,1897      The Nations of the World: France ,1898      The XVIIIth Century. Across France in a Caravan George Nugent-Bankes,1893      Flags of the World Byron McCandless,Gilbert Hovey Grosvenor,1917      Public Opinion ,1873      The History of France from the Earliest Times to 1848 François Guizot, Madame de Witt (Henriette Elizabeth),1885      France in the South Pacific Denise Fisher,2013-05-23 France is a Pacific power with three territories a military presence and extensive investments Once seen by many as a colonial interloper in the South Pacific by the early 2000s after it ended nuclear testing in French Polynesia and negotiated transitional Accords responding to independence demands in New Caledonia France seems to have become generally accepted as a regional partner even if its efforts concentrate on its own territories rather than the independent island states But Frances future in the region has yet to be secured By 2014 it is to have handed over a set of agreed autonomies to the New Caledonian government before an independence referendum process begins Past experience suggests that a final resolution of the status of New Caledonia will be divisive and could lead once again to violent confrontations In French Polynesia calls continue for independence and for treatment under UN decolonisation procedures which France opposes Other island leaders are watching so far putting faith in the Noumea Accord but wary of the final stages The issues and possible solutions are more complex than the French Pacific island population of 515 000 would suggest Combining historical background with political and economic analysis this comprehensive study offers vital insight into the intricate history and problematic future of several of Australias key neighbours in the Pacific and to the priorities and options of the European country that still rules them It is aimed at policy makers scholars journalists businesspeople and others who want to familiarise themselves with the issues as Frances role in the region is redefined in the years to come
