The Knowledge Base In Educational Administration Multiple Perspectives:

The Knowledge Base in Educational Administration Robert Donmoyer, Michael Imber, James Joseph Scheurich, 1995-07-01 This anthology summarizes and critiques the current knowledge base in the field of educational administration

Handbook of Research on the Education of School Leaders, Handbook of Research on the Education of School Leaders Michelle D. Young, Gary M. Crow, Joseph Murphy, Rodney T. Ogawa, 2009-09-10 Sponsored by the University Council of Educational Administration this comprehensive handbook is the definitive work on leadership education in the United States An in depth portrait of what constitutes research on leadership development this handbook provides a plan for strengthening the research based education of school leaders in order to impact leadership's influence on student engagement and learning Although research oriented the content is written in a style that makes it appropriate for any of the following audiences university professors and researchers professional development providers practicing administrators and policy makers who work in the accreditation and licensure arenas

Developing School Leaders Mark Brundrett, Megan Crawford, 2012-08-06 Many countries face a crisis in recruitment to the most senior positions in schools at a time when arguments rage about the best way to develop our school leaders Focusing on leadership development in ten diverse cultural contexts this book brings together some of the most senior commentators in the field of educational leadership development to provide a global perspective on leadership development programmes and practices The rise of leadership development programmes has presented opportunities for some and challenges for others These challenges are both practical and conceptual and relate to a series of questions that are unpacked in the book including What is the appropriate balance between the academic and the practical in leadership programmes Should provision be located in higher education institutions in other government sponsored organizations or commissioned from the private sector Are models of leadership studies derived from the business and industry relevant to schools How can research into impact inform leadership development policy and strategy Should programmes be integrated into higher degree provision or should new and innovative forms of accreditation be developed This book should be fascinating reading for all those engaged in educational research and teaching and working in educational leadership

Handbook of Research on Educational Administration Joseph Murphy, Karen Seashore Louis, 1999-04-26 Over the past ten years a variety of leadership theories and practices have both influenced and responded to widespread changes in education This volume examines the technical managerial and institutional dimensions of leadership and shows how they relate to changing views of teaching and learning to new forms of school organization and governance and to shifting trends in the social and community climate of schooling

E-Portfolios for Educational Leaders Barbara L. Nicholson, 2004-03-12 In E Portfolios for Educational Leaders Barbara Nicholson offers suggestions for educational administration programs aiming to reduce the theory practice gap in the preservice preparation of school principals Based on the standards of the Interstate School Leaders Licensure

Consortium the book's focus is both programmatic and individual in scope At the program level Nicholson examines strategies for reforming the field dimensions of preservice practice requiring more interaction with practitioners in schools and encouraging their active participation in the preparation of principals She also provides an in depth discussion of conventional assessment practices and explores the reasons for shifting to a more student centered process The individual focus is on assisting graduate students who are constructing electronic portfolios as both a program exit requirement and a foundation for eventual performance appraisal More a detailed comprehensive narrative than a minimalist guide E Portfolios for Educational Leaders develops fully the conceptual rationale behind the program reforms it describes THE POSTMODERN CHALLENGE TO THE THEORY AND PRACTICE OF EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATION 2003-01-01,2003-01-01 Based on nearly a decade of scholarship this is a highly focused book on the implications of postmodernism for the construction and assessment of theory and practice in educational administration Current ideas of practice are deconstructed from the notions of sound research to the use of national standards in the preparation of educational leaders along with ways of examining and resolving the theory practice gap Part One of the book contains chapters dealing with the rise of postmodernism and describes its broad based dissent from a century of thought in the field including a penetrating examination of whether the concept of a field itself is viable Part Two of the book explores the many ramifications of postmodernism to practice beginning with ideas concerning educational research These chapters tackle the tough issues of the efficacy of the Interstate Leaders Licensure Standards ISLLC and the national exam as examples of job deskilling and deprofessionalization in the guise of raising standards of preparation of future educational leaders Other chapters deal with deconstructing the popular managerial ideas contained in Stephen Covey's works and dispute Joe Murphy's call for a new center of gravity in the field as reinforcing the status quo Finally the book tackles the issue of the theory practice gap and indicates that new and progressive theories which anticipate problems of practice are what is required to deal with this persistent issue The book contains many helpful exhibits in understanding the issues concerning theory and practice as well as a glossary of terms most commonly found in postmodern discourse This book is designed for college and university programs engaged in the preparation of educational leaders for elementary secondary schools and college administrative positions 21st Century Challenges for School Administrators Theodore J.
