Psalms/Lamentations/Song of Songs Christopher R. Smith, 2011-07-20 A Bible Study guide explaining the different kinds of songs written in ancient times and how many of them have become part of the Bible Sound Souvenirs Karin Bijsterveld, José van Dijck, 2009 In recent decades the importance of sound for remembering the past and for creating a sense of belonging has been increasingly acknowledged We keep sound souvenirs such as cassette tapes and long play albums in our attics because we want to be able to recreate the music and everyday sounds we once cherished Artists and ordinary listeners deploy the newest digital audio technologies to recycle past sounds into present tunes Sound and memory are inextricably intertwined not just through the commercially exploited nostalgia on oldies radio stations but through the exchange of valued songs by means of pristine recordings and cultural practices such as collecting archiving and listing This book explores several types of cultural practices involving the remembrance and restoration of past sounds At the same time it theorizes the cultural meaning of collecting recycling reciting and remembering sound and music The Mix, 1997

The Sound of Modern Polish Poetry Aleksandra Kremer, 2021-12-07 An illuminating new study of modern Polish verse in performance offering a major reassessment of the roles of poets and poetry in twentieth century Polish culture What is a voice Why record oneself reading a poem that also exists on paper In recent decades scholars have sought to answer these questions giving due credit to the art of poetry performance in the anglophone world Now Aleksandra Kremer trains a sharp ear on modern Polish poetry assessing the rising importance of authorial sound recordings during the tumultuous twentieth century in Eastern Europe Kremer traces the adoption by key Polish poets of performance practices intimately tied to new media In Polish hands tape recording became something different from what it had been in the West shaped by its distinctive origins behind the Iron Curtain The Sound of Modern Polish Poetry reconstructs the historical conditions audio technologies and personal motivations that informed poetic performances by such luminaries as Czesław Miłosz Wisława Szymborska Aleksander Wat Zbigniew Herbert Miron Białoszewski Anna Swir and Tadeusz Różewicz Through performances both public and private prepared and improvised professional and amateur these poets tested the possibilities of the physical voice and introduced new poetic practices reading styles and genres to the Polish literary scene Recording became for these artists a means of announcing their ambiguous place between worlds Kremer's is a work of criticism as well as recovery deploying speech analysis software to shed light on forgotten audio experiments from poetic sound postcards to unusual home performances to the final testaments of writer performers Collectively their voices reveal new aesthetics of poetry reading and novel concepts of the poetic self Library Journal, 2006 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately The Routledge Handbook of Heritage and Creative Practice Nick Cass, Anna Powell, Sarina Wakefield, 2025-11-25 The Routledge Handbook of Heritage and Creative Practice explores the role of creativity as a tool for critical engagement with heritage It provides a comprehensive study of ways in which heritage and creative practice intersect in research in practice and in a transnational context This book introduces researchers students creative and heritage practitioners to contemporary practices from a breadth of perspectives The transnational nature of its scope is key to the exploration of how heritage and creativity are ever evolving conceived of differently in different contexts and intersect in interesting ways through the work of creative practitioners The volume argues that heritage itself is a creative practice such that the creative work that occurs in these examples is not singular and distinct rather the symbiotic reciprocity between heritage and creativity is intersectional and embedded The international array of authors and differing approaches from around the world including case studies from Africa Bahrain Brazil Caribbean Columbia China Hong Kong Iraq Japan Kuwait Mexico Oman Qatar United Kingdom and United Arab Emirates provide a global approach to the subject while the diverse range of topics covered including urban renewal the coronavirus pandemic memorial culture public art and colonial heritage allows readers to gain insight into the richness of practices across a diversity of disciplines and contexts This volume offers a significant and new contribution to heritage studies that will be of interest to scholars and students in heritage and museum studies as well those in the fields of art architecture anthropology design digital and curatorial studies It also provides a valuable resource for artists arts professionals architects and museums and heritage practitioners

Digital Radio in Europe Brian O'Neill, 2010 Radio the oldest form of electronic broadcasting has been described as the last medium to go digital Yet developments have been underway for over twenty years to create new technologies and digital platforms for the transmission of radio in digital form O'Neill presents detailed studies of the development of Digital Audio Broadcasting DAB successes and failures in digital radio implementation and future scenarios for radio in a fully converged media environment Essays address the fact that radio now stands at a crossroads in its development and question whether it has a viable future or whether it will converge with other forms of multimedia and audiovisual media services The Concise Encyclopedia of American Radio Christopher H. Sterling, Cary O'Dell, 2010-04-12 The Concise Encyclopedia of American Radio is an essential single volume reference guide to this vital and evolving medium Comprised of more than 300 entries spanning the invention of radio to the Internet this reference work addresses personalities music genres regulations technology programming and stations the golden age of radio and other topics relating to radio broadcasting throughout its history The entries are updated throughout and the volume includes nine new entries on topics ranging from podcasting to the decline of radio Journal of the Audio Engineering Society Audio Engineering Society, 2000 Directory of members published as pt 2 of Apr 1954 issue Audio, 1997 Possessed Voices Ruthie Abeliovich, 2019-07-01 Analyzes audio recordings of interwar Hebrew plays providing a new model for the use of sound in theater studies Possessed Voices tells the intriguing story of a largely unknown collection of audio recordings a valuable tool for understanding historical theater which preserve performances of modernist interwar Hebrew plays Seldom used in scholarship Ruthie Abeliovich focuses on four recordings a 1931 recording of The Eternal Jew 1919 a 1965 recording of The Dybbuk 1922 a 1961 radio play of The Golem 1925 and a 1952 radio play of Yaakov and Rachel 1928 Abeliovich traces the spoken language of modernist Hebrew theater as grounded in multiple modalities of expressive practices including spoken Hebrew Jewish liturgical sensibilities supplemented by Yiddish intonation and other vernacular accents and in relation to prevalent theatrical forms The book shows how these performances provided Jewish immigrants from Europe with a venue for lamenting the decline of their home communities and for connecting their memories to the present Analyzing sonic material against the backdrop of its artistic cultural and ideological contexts Abeliovich develops a critical framework for the study of sound as a discipline in its own right in theater scholarship The author's focus on historicizing and analyzing sound recordings and radio plays as a means to tackle the pervasive ephemerality problem in theater studies is a novel and valuable approach that represents a significant intervention in the field These types of sources have had scant attention in theater studies to date but Abeliovich makes a compelling argument that they belong at the center Debra Caplan author of Yiddish Empire The Vilna Troupe Jewish Theater and the Art of Itinerancy Sound & Vision ,2005 The Absolute Sound ,2006 Lamentations for Jerusalem Daniel V.
