Flight, 1928 The Turning Andrew E. Hunt, 1999-07 The anti Vietnam War movement in the United States is perhaps best remembered for its young counterculture student protesters However the Vietnam War was the first conflict in American history in which a substantial number of military personnel actively protested the war while it was in progress In The Turning Andrew Hunt reclaims the history of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War VVAW an organization that transformed the antiwar movement by placing Vietnam veterans in the forefront of the nationwide struggle to end the war Misunderstood by both authorities and radicals alike VVAW members were mostly young men who had served in Vietnam and returned profoundly disillusioned with the rationale for the war and with American conduct in Southeast Asia Angry impassioned and uncompromisingly militant the VVAW that Hunt chronicles in this first history of the organization posed a formidable threat to America's Vietnam policy and further contributed to the sense that the nation was under siege from within Based on extensive interviews and in depth primary research including recently declassified government files The Turning is a vivid history of the men who risked censures stigma even imprisonment for a cause they believed to be an extended tour of duty

Places of Commemoration Joachim Wolschke-Bulmahn, 2001 Everyone is occupied consciously or unconsciously with identity one's origin and the question of one's place in humankind and society of the past present and future Identity and memory are not stable and objective things but representations or constructions of reality related to a particular interest such as class gender of power relations Identity is problematic without history and without the commemoration of history and of course such remembrance may distort historical events and facts When dealing with gardens a substantial part of our physical environment there are always unspoken questions of identity Places of Commemoration examines commemorative sites of different character including gardens landscapes memorials cemeteries and sites of former Nazi concentration camps detailing the ideas behind the creation of memorials and monuments and the struggles over the narratives they present

Lansky receives medals and media recognition for his heroics Huddle believes his uncanny success portends an approaching apocalypse that may consume their very souls And as the war worsens for last remaining American infantry in Vietnam Lansky wonders why the country s Dragon Spirit chose him and if its power will see him safely home Bill Lambert Samuel J.
