Included in this Herman Melville collection are six tales that range considerably from The Encantadas an allegorical travelogue to the haunting Bartleby the Scrivener. Opening the volume is The Piazza a pastoral sketch that frames the collection. Benito Cereno a subversive satire of grows out of a true story of mutiny among the enslaved.

The Piazza Tales Herman Melville, 2017-02-03 The Piazza Tales is a collection of six short stories by American writer Herman Melville published by Dix Edwards in the United States in May 1856 and in Britain in June. Except for the newly written title story The Piazza all of the stories had appeared in Putnam's Monthly in 1853-1855. The collection includes what has long been regarded as the author's three most important achievements in the genre of short fiction: Bartleby the Scrivener, Benito Cereno, and The Encantadas; his sketches of the Galapagos Islands. Melville had originally intended to entitle the volume Benito Cereno and Other Sketches but settled on the definitive title after he had written the introductory story. The book received largely favorable reviews with reviewers especially praising The Encantadas but did not sell well enough to get Melville out of his financial straits probably because short fiction for magazines had little appeal to bookbuyers. After Melville was rediscovered until the end of the twentieth century the short works attracting the most critical attention were Bartleby, Benito Cereno, and The Encantadas with The Piazza a little behind those. In addition to the five stories Melville wrote an introductory story for which the volume was titled Scholar. Douglas Robillard believes that this served the purpose of making the stories to appear more closely joined than they actually are. The contract for the book was signed on 17 March 1856 it was advertised on 5 April as in press and should have been available by 15 May though a copy was deposited for copyright on May 20. The volume was printed by Miller Holman Printers and Stereotypers of New York as a duodecimo volume of 431 pages excluding seven pages of advertisements for other product by the same publishers. Biographer Parker observes that to reach that number of pages the book was padded out by leaving excessive white space. The front and back covers were ornamented by a border of rules and rosettes. The spine displayed the title names of author and publishers stamped in gold and the volume was priced at 1 00. In June the book was advertised together with another as TWO GOOD SUMMER BOOKS. In 1922 three years after the centennial of Melville's birth the first reissue of the collection appeared as part of the Constable collected edition The Lightning Rod Man was chosen for inclusion in William Evans Burton's Wit and Humor of 1857 with an illustration by Henry Louis Stephens. No other original illustration for one of his works appeared during Melville's lifetime. The Lightning Rod Man the one Melville tale to be available throughout his lifetime.

Herman Melville (August 1, 1819 – September 28, 1891) was an American novelist, short story writer, and poet of the American Renaissance period. His best known works include Typee (1846) a romantic account of his experiences in Polynesian life and his whaling novel Moby-Dick (1851). His work was almost forgotten during his last thirty years. His writing draws on his experience at sea as a common sailor, exploration of literature and philosophy, and engagement in the contradictions of American society in a period of rapid change. He developed a complex baroque style; the vocabulary is rich and original, a strong sense of rhythm infuses the elaborate sentences; the imagery is often mystical or ironic and the abundance of allusion extends to Scripture myth philosophy literature and the visual arts Born in New York City as the third child of a merchant in French dry goods Melville's formal education ended abruptly after his father died in 1832 leaving the family in financial straits Melville briefly became a schoolteacher before he took to sea in 1839 as a common sailor on a merchant ship In 1840 he signed aboard the whaler Acushnet for his first whaling voyage but jumped ship in the Marquesas Islands
