The Ornament Tree:

The Ornament Tree Jean Thesman, 1996 Bonnie Shaster fourteen and recently orphaned arrives at her cousin Audra's Seattle boarding house in 1918 and struggles to find her place among a disorderly group of progressive ladies and outspoken gentlemen boarders among them a handsome but embittered young man blinded in the Great War The Ornament Tree ,

Trim the Tree Annie's, 2014-09-01 When you look at your Christmas tree which ornaments stand out the most Chances are it's those that were handmade either by you or by a loved one The best things about handmade ornaments are the memories that come with them This year why not create more memories by hand making the ornaments in this book You can make them as gifts or get the whole family involved spending the afternoon crafting The book includes 53 designs across a wide variety from traditional to whimsical for the very young to the young at heart and even ornaments for pets Many of the ornaments are easy to make and can be finished in an hour or two using general supplies found in local sewing and craft stores If you have a stash of scraps this is a wonderful way to make good use of these on hand fabrics Don't stop with making Christmas ornaments though Further your creativity by using these designs to make gift tags hot pads cards coasters or mug rugs If you enjoy making ornaments but your list is small make them by the batch to sell at a craft bazaar or bring a smile to strangers faces by giving handmade ornaments to your favorite charity May you have a lot of fun making Christmas ornaments that your family and friends and perhaps others will cherish for many years to come Reading Raps Rita Soltan, 2005-12-30 Book clubs are sprouting up all over and so are book club guides but not all book club guides are equal Many focus on a specific type of book club or they take a generic approach of one size fits all and most do not take into account the special needs of librarians and educators working with young readers This guide has it all and it will help you ensure that your book club meetings are both fun and educational Focusing on children in grades 3-8 and their families the book offers 100 ready-made book club instructions for popular children's and YA titles from newer releases such as Theresa Nelson's Ruby Electric and Blue Balliett's Chasing Vermeer to perennial favorites and award-winning classics such as Johanna Hurwitz's Much Ado about Aldo and Gary Soto's Baseball in April and Other Stories Along with thought-provoking discussion questions you'll find all the background information you need to conduct lively book discussions with a variety of readers plot summary themes and characters description genre reading level author and award information related reads and more The guide describes four types of family-oriented book clubs family mother-daughter father-son and readers rap as well as a book club for kids only The author provides practical instructions for making each type of book club successful For each title she provides a plot summary characterization sketches questions to use for provocative discussion and follow-up bibliographies on similar reads Notes on genres themes and reading levels are also provided The selected titles reflect some of the best most current and most popular children's literature In addition a broad scope of genres and multicultural titles are included Perfect for public library programs and after-school book clubs this is a one-stop resource with practical ready
