Groupie Arnold Wesker,2011-08-31 Mattie Beancourt a 61 year old woman reads the autobiography of Mark Gorman a famous painter Having grown up in the same East End streets she writes to him A correspondence develops She visits him unannounced and discovers he lives in near poverty and neglect Her personality is sunny his is curmudgeonly Their impact upon each other is startling I was an appendage for him Something stuck on but not special He didn t need me There was never any real passion there To live a whole life knowing you were not special for anyone craving it to be loved and special Just once in my life before I die

Eating Disorders and Child Sexual Abuse Lisa Hodge,2021-03-10 This book takes up the challenge of examining women s understandings of eating disorders and child sexual abuse away from a framework focused on pathology The central argument is that women s distress is an enactment of their engagement with certain discourses and practices rather than a reaction triggered by child sexual abuse Guided by a contemporary feminist framework and Mikhail Bakhtin s sociological linguistics to substantiate the argument women s own poetry and drawings are used as evidence to develop support and supplement research findings The book establishes that an eating disorder is an understandable response to sexual trauma and shifts the focus away from a damaged personality Even more importantly it demonstrates that women with eating disorders are using their bodies as a form of resistance to express silenced traumas that remain in the silenced female body This is an active way of making sense of experiences of child sexual abuse
