Earle Welby,2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1926 edition The London Mercury ,1927 The Nation and Athenæum ,1926 Swinburne's Hell and Hick's Universalism Lindsey Hall,2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2003 This book seeks to establish whether a Christian position must entail a belief in hell or whether Christians can hold a coherent theory of universal salvation Richard Swinburne s defence of hell depends on the argument that hell is necessary if humans are to be genuinely free It becomes clear that the contemporary discussion of hell and universalism cannot be separated from the issues of human freedom and God s knowledge and so Hall centres the discussion round the question Are we Free to Reject God John Hick argues that although we are free to reject God there will eventually be an universalist outcome Having examined the contrasting arguments of Hick and Swinburne Hall builds on Hick s position to develop an argument for Christian universal salvation which holds in balance our freedom in relation to God and the assurance that all will finally be saved Literature ,1901 The Open Shelf ,1917 A History of English Literature: Modern times (1660-1911) by Louis Cazamian, translated from the French by W.
