Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio, 2006 This volume considers Caravaggio's revolutionary realism from a range of perspectives presenting new avenues for research by a plurality of leading scholars First it advances our understanding of Caravaggio's relationship with the new science of observation championed by Galileo Second it examines afresh the theoretical nature and artistic means of Caravaggio's seemingly direct realism Third it extends the horizons of research on Caravaggio's complex intellectual and social milieu between high and low cultures Genevieve Warwick is Senior Lecturer in the Art History department at the University of Glasgow The Matter of Violence in Baroque Painting Bogdan Cornea, 2025-10-01 Baroque depictions of violence are often dismissed as over the top and excessive Their material richness and exciting visual complexity together with the visceral engagement they demand from beholders are usually explained in literature as reflecting the presumed violence of early modern society This book explores the intersection between materiality excess and violence in seventeenth century paintings through a close analysis of some of the most iconic works of the period Baroque paintings expose or reference their materiality by insisting on various physical changes wrought through violence This study approaches violence as the work of materiality which has the potential to analogously stage pictorial surfaces as corporeal surfaces where paint becomes flayed flesh canvas threads ruptured skin and red paint spilt blood
