Snapping Lines Stories:

Snapping Lines Jack López,2001-01-01 A construction worker takes up with the pregnant daughter of an acquaintance and finds he doesn't control the relationship as much as he thinks he does A couple searches for a lost dog along the beach because the dog is more important than their relationship A drunken man picks up a girl hitchhiker and remembers what it once felt like to have feelings for someone else What does it mean to be male in a world in which old borders no longer exist How can a man have a relationship if he doesn't even know who he is and what better way to find out than by committing to a woman Snapping Lines brings familiar and new stories together in a collection that explores the lives of loners searching for love Jack Lopez writes about people who have adopted a stoical indifference to a world in which they always seem to find themselves on the losing end These stories explore Latino male identity and the forces that shape it friends family and lovers culture place and relationships They focus on men often workingmen in the building trades who construct their lives through their work and live in perpetual limbo because they don't know who they are Men who stumble onto the relationships they need almost by accident Men who try to control their relationships but fail Written in spare electric language and energized by memorable scenes these stories enlighten as much as they entertain When you have read Snapping Lines you will come to see the faces of strangers in new and familiar ways

Living a Feminist Life Sara Ahmed,2016-12-22 In Living a Feminist Life Sara Ahmed shows how feminist theory is generated from everyday life and the ordinary experiences of being a feminist at home and at work Building on legacies of feminist of color scholarship in particular Ahmed offers a poetic and personal meditation on how feminists become estranged from worlds they critique often by naming and calling attention to problems and how feminists learn about worlds from their efforts to transform them Ahmed also provides her most sustained commentary on the figure of the feminist killjoy introduced in her earlier work while showing how feminists create inventive solutions such as forming support systems to survive the shattering experiences of facing the walls of racism and sexism The killjoy survival kit and killjoy manifesto with which the book concludes supply practical tools for how to live a feminist life thereby strengthening the ties between the inventive creation of feminist theory and living a life that sustains it
