Personal Note

Hi Thomas,

I want to take a brief moment to send an Office Personal Note your way. These notes are all about creating a sense of connection amidst the hustle and bustle of our professional world. They open up a line of informal and friendly conversation, even in our highly professional milieu. And that's exactly what I'd like to achieve here.

Just want to extend my appreciation for the work you've been doing. I have noticed your tireless efforts and wanted to say that your dedication doesn't go unnoticed. It's colleagues like you who keep our brand's unique identity vibrant, dynamic, and truly exemplary.

This note might be brief, much shorter than our usual, formal lines of professional communication - but I hope every word resonates with the sincerity behind them. You are vibrant and integral part of our team.

Keep up your great work.

Regards,
H. Larson

This practical manual guides churches through a year long stewardship program Covers the fundamentals of building a successful program from teaching Christian stewardship to hosting creative successful commitment events Filled with useful advice and how to sections on topics ranging from recruiting and training leaders to charting progress Offers a complete overview of The Joyful Giving Program for stewardship Administration Funding Proposals for Drug Treatment and Drug Education Programs United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies, 1987

An Episcopal Dictionary of the Church Robert Boak Slocum, Don S. Armentrout, 2000-01-01 A comprehensive quick reference for all Episcopalians both lay and ordained This thoroughly researched highly readable resource contains more than 3 000 clearly entries about the history structure liturgy and theology of the Episcopal Church and the larger Christian church worldwide The editors have also provided a helpful bibliography of key reference works and additional background materials This tool belongs on the shelf of just about anyone who cares for works in or with or even wonders about the Episcopal Church The Episcopal New Yorker

Creating Generous Congregations David L. Heetland, 2020-07-21 A problem facing many churches today is the lack of strong leadership in the area of stewardship particularly the stewardship of financial resources Church leaders clergy and laity have had little or no training in this area and they feel uncomfortable and embarrassed in encouraging financial support for the church s ministries Failure to provide decisive leadership in this area has had negative consequences for the church including a decreasing percentage of charitable dollars directed toward churches and a growing lack of understanding among church members of the relationship between giving and spiritual growth Creating Generous Congregations is written to assist church leaders in gaining necessary expertise in the stewardship of financial resources so that persons will be invited to grow spiritually and the various ministries of the church will flourish
