Teaching Social Work Neil Thompson, 2022-11-15 There are particular challenges involved in teaching social work As with other professional disciplines it is not simply a matter of passing on the key elements of the knowledge base there is also the need to equip students to be able to make use of that knowledge in practice and in the context of relevant professional values Neil Thompson is a distinguished international scholar and brings over 30 years of experience to a wide range of case studies and transferable skills that will provide a foundation for future social workers everywhere

Disturbing Practice Avner Segall, 2002 Annotation Segall teacher education Michigan State U presents this critical analysis of teacher education based on a year long study of six social studies teacher trainees at the University of Western Canada The author raises questions about what and how teacher trainees learn do not learn and learn not to learn in preservice education courses how the structures discourses and practices in these courses encourage students to learn some things and not others and how typical teacher trainee courses influence the classroom choices later made by graduates when they become teachers Segall argues that traditional teacher training courses encourage compliance over true critical thinking making it difficult to produce critical teachers who provide critical education in our schools Annotation c Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com
