Skeptical Engagements:

Skeptical Engagements Freda Crews, Frederick Campbell Crews, 1988-10 In Out of My System 1975 the influential literary critic Frederick Crews documented the erosion of his Freudian sympathies Now in his latest carefully reasoned study he reveals where that reappraisal took him and why he has come to regard himself as an opponent of all self validating doctrines Presenting a searing critique of pretension and folly in the literary academy Crews applies his skepticism to such diverse figures as Joseph Conrad Henry Miller Norman Mailer Philip Roth and Leslie Fiedler Against Freud Todd Dufresne, 2007 Against Freud is a highly accessible informative and entertaining examination of Freud's controversial ideas and legacy by the world's most knowledgeable critics of psychoanalysis A Cultivated Reason Christopher Williams, 1998-12-01 As Plato's tripartite division of the soul Descartes's criterion of clear and distinct ideas and Kant's notion of the categorical imperative attest philosophy has traditionally been wedded to rationalism and its intellectualist view of persons In this book Christopher Williams seeks to wean his fellow philosophers away from an overly rationalistic self understanding by using resources that are available within the philosophical tradition itself including some that anticipate strands of Nietzsche's thought The book begins by developing Hume's critique of rationalism with reference especially to the section of the Treatise that deals with the continuing existence of bodies an argument that subverts intellectualist criteria by attempting to satisfy them and to his neglected essay The Sceptic where Hume reveals the importance of our embodiment through a comic portrayal of philosophers efforts to correct our sentiments Then it moves on to ward off charges of irrationalism by showing that although our powers of self correction are more limited than the rationalist thinks they are a Humean position is able both to sustain a commitment to reflection and to sensitize us to a version of irrationalism manifest in monotheistic theologies that is otherwise difficult to detect The book concludes more speculatively with a comparison of persons to artworks in order to show how our aesthetic dimension is the source of some of the normative work previously assigned to rationalist reason Ranging as it does across subfields from epistemology and history of philosophy to ethics and aesthetics A Cultivated Reason should appeal to a wide audience of philosophers and to scholars in other fields as well

Evolution and Literary Theory Joseph Carroll, 1995 Over the past two decades poststructuralism in its myriad forms has come to dominate literary criticism to the exclusion of virtually any other point of view Few scholars have escaped the coercive authority of its programmatic radicalism In Evolution and Literary Theory Joseph Carroll vigorously attacks the foundational principles of poststructuralism and offers in their stead a bold new theory that situates literary criticism within the matrix of evolutionary theory Freudians and Schadenfreudians Jeffrey Berman, 2024-08-22 Sigmund Freud can be a polarizing figure beloved by many and despised by some Focusing on eight key writers and scholars who either passionately loved or gleefully loathed Freud this book represents Freud's wide legacy the reach of his ideas their controversies and their ability still to provoke inspire confound outrage and compel The book begins by focusing on four highly prolific authors whose admiration for Freud is boundless Lionel Trilling Harold Bloom Kurt R Eissler and Peter Gay Berman then explores four more writers whose aim was not simply to debunk Freud and destroy his monstrous creation but to cast both into hell D H Lawrence Vladimir Nabokov Thomas Szasz and Frederick Crews Each chapter discusses the author's involvement with Freud exploring the continuities and discontinuities of his or her writings as well as offering snapshots of the writers suggesting how their personal and professional lives were inextricably related Berman draws out some surprising commonalities between the Freudolaters and Schadenfreudians going on to discuss the current state of psychoanalysis and the psychoanalytic credos by which contemporary analysts live The Skeptical Inquirer, 1986 Degenerate Moderns E. Michael Jones, 1993 In this groundbreaking new book Jones shows how some of the major determining leaders in modern thought and culture have rationalized their own immoral behavior and projected it onto a universal canvas The main thesis of this book is that in the intellectual life there are only two ultimate alternatives either the thinker conforms desire to truth or he conforms truth to desire In the last one hundred years the western cultural elite embarked upon a project which entailed the reversal of the values of the intellectual life so that truth would be subjected to desire as the final criterion of intellectual value In looking at recent biographies of such major moderns as Freud Kinsey Keynes Margaret Mead Picasso and others there is a remarkable similarity between their lives and thought After becoming involved in sexual license early on they invariably chose an ideology or art form which subordinated reality to the exigencies of their sexual misbehavior The Johns Hopkins Guide to Literary Theory and Criticism Michael Groden, Martin Kreiswirth, 1994 Contains over 200 alphabetically arranged entries on the major terms movements and critics associated with the field of literary theory and criticism The World & I, 1987 Success Magazine, 1926 Tenured Radicals, Revised Roger Kimball, 1998-05 Since Tenured Radicals first appeared in 1990 it has achieved the status of a minor classic Trenchant and witty it lays bare the sham of what now passes for serious teaching and research in the humanities at American universities Mr Kimball names his enemies precisely This book will breed fistfights Roger Rosenblatt New York Times Book Review All persons serious about education should see it Allan Bloom author of The Closing of the American Mind The Memory Wars Frederick C. Crews, 1997 This volume contains two essays by Frederick Crews attacking Freudian psychoanalysis and its aftermath in the so called recovered memory movement The first essay reviews a growing body of evidence indicating that Freud doctored his data and manipulated his colleagues in an effort to consolidate a cult life following that would neither defy nor upstage him The second essay challenges the scientific and therapeutic claims of the rapidly growing recovered memory movement maintaining that its social effects have been devastating Margin, 1990 Canadian Review of Comparative Literature, 1997 Mosaic, 2001-03 The American Scholar William Allison Shimer, 1984 The Journal of Transpersonal Psychology, 1992 The African Book Publishing Record, 1987 Novelists in Their Youth John Halperin, 1990 An unrepentant enthusiast for the art of literary biography Halperin not only believes that the author's life and work are inextricably linked but that the themes obsessions and ideas that characterize his or her output are formed during and can be traced back to the writer s formative years Blake ,1993 An illustrated quarterly
