Sustainability as a Trend in Fashion Industry. An Empirical Study about Changing Consumer Behaviour

Dagmar Cyrklaff, 2017-06-14 Master's Thesis from the year 2017 in the subject Business economics Offline Marketing and Online Marketing grade 1.7 University of Applied Sciences Berlin course International Marketing language English abstract A trend in society to take care of environmental issues is observed and the generation born around the millennium shift between 1980 and 2000 so called generation Y became a growing consumer market in Germany Fashion is one of the most consumed segments by the Millennials who value transparent production and are sensitive to environmental issues at the same time This study seeks to provide a current status of the generation Y's knowledge attitude and behaviour in regards to fashion consumption with the impact of sustainability A literature review and an online survey have been conducted to analyse the consumer behaviour of 84 Generation Y consumers aged 17 to 37 in 2017 The major result shows that there is no significant difference in attitude and behaviour towards a sustainable development between consumers that live a conscious life and conventional consumers Sustainability as a topic has reached Millennials who should further deepen their knowledge in order to foster a sustainable development in fashion Eco-Friendly and Fair Mark Heuer, Carolin Becker-Leifhold, 2018-05-11 The make take waste paradigm of fast fashion explains much of the producer and consumer behavior patterns towards fast fashion The evolution from a two season fashion calendar to fast fashion characterized by rapid product cycles from retailers and impulse buying by consumers presents new challenges to the environment workplace and labour practices This book provides a comprehensive overview of new insights into consumer behaviour mechanisms in order to shift practices toward sustainable fashion and to minimize the negative impacts of fast fashion on the environment and society Concepts and techniques are presented that could overcome the formidable economic drivers of fast fashion and lead toward a future of sustainable fashion While the need for change in the fashion industry post Rana Plaza could not be more obvious alternative and more sustainable consumption models have been under investigated The paucity of such research extends to highly consumptive consumer behaviours regarding fast fashion i.e impulse buying and throwaways and the related impediments these behaviours pose for sustainable fashion Written by leading researchers in the field of sustainable fashion and supported by the Textile Institute this book evaluates fashion trends what factors have led to new trends and how the factors supporting fast fashion differ from those of the past It explores the economic drivers of fast fashion and what social environmental and political factors should be maintained and business approaches adopted in order for fast fashion to be a sustainable model In particular it provides consumer behaviour concepts that can be utilized at the retail level to support sustainable fashion
