

The Judas Room

John Dickson Carr

The Judas Room:

The Judas Window Carter Dickson, 2008-04 Avory Hume is found stabbed to death with an arrow in a study with bolted steel shutters and a heavy door LOCKED FROM THE INSIDE In the same room James Caplon Answell lies unconscious his clothes disordered as though from a struggle his fingerprints on the damning arrow An unconventional version of the locked room mystery featuring Sir Henry Merrivale The denouement with Sir Henry at the Old Bailey reconstructing the crime in fiendish detail is fascinating stuff

The Judas Window Carter Dickson, 2016-07-26 Only young James Answell could have committed the murder After all he was found unconscious in the locked room next to the body of the murdered man His clothes were disheveled from an apparent struggle The whiskey decanter containing the liquor he said was used to knock him out was full to the brim All the glasses on the table were clean His fingerprints were found on the murder weapon an arrow from the victim's collection Furthermore he was heard arguing with the dead man whose daughter he wished to marry Just about everyone is convinced that James is headed for a date with the hangman Everyone except Sir Henry Merrivale H M to his friends and associates He's convinced that the real murderer used a Judas window to commit the crime Pay no attention to the architects who designed the building H M insists In fact he says you'll find a Judas window in practically every room The trouble is that so few people ever notice it First published in 1938 The Judas Window is considered by many to be the best locked room mystery of all time Carter Dickson is of course the pseudonym of John Dickson Carr the universally acknowledged grand master of the form

The Judas Window John Dickson Carr, 2012-08 The Judas Window by John Dickson Carr as Carter Dickson a Sir Henry Merrivale mystery One of the five best locked room mysteries as selected by 14 established mystery authors and critics All But Impossible 1981 ed E Hoch The Case Avory Hume is found dead with an arrow through his heart in a study with bolted steel shutters and a heavy door locked from the inside In the same room James Caplon Answell lies unconscious his clothes disordered as though from a struggle The Attorney for the Defense That gruff and grumbling old sleuth Sir Henry Merrivale who proves himself superb in court even though his gown does tear with a rending noise as he rises majestically to open the case The Action Before H M can begin his defense Answell his client rises and cries out that he is guilty Sir Henry doesn't believe it But proof circumstantial evidence and the man's own confession point to his guilt So the great explosive detective gets down to serious sleuthing and at last startles the crowd in the Old Bailey with a reconstruction of the crime along logical convincing lines The Judas Window Also published as The Crossbow Murder Included is the floor plan found in the print version redrawn for better legibility specifically for this edition

Economic Investigations in Twentieth-Century Detective Fiction Yan Zi-Ling, 2016-03-09 In his study of Golden Age and hard boiled detective fiction from 1890 to 1950 Yan Zi Ling argues that these two subgenres can be distinguished not only by theme and style but by the way they structure knowledge value and productive labour Using the detective as a reference point and enactor of socially based interests Yan shows that Golden Age texts are distinguished by their conservatism and not only by their conservatism with the detectives actions serving to stabilize institutions with specific ideological aims In contrast the criminal investigations of the hard boiled detective who is poorly aligned with institutions and strong interest groups reveal the fragility of the status quo in the face of escalating cycles of violence Key to Yan s discussion are theories of exchange value and the gift the latter of which he suggests is more akin to detective work than is wage labour Analyzing texts by a wide range of authors that includes Arthur Conan Doyle Agatha Christie Dashiell Hammett Raymond Chandler Dorothy Sayers Raoul Whitfield George Harmon Coxe and Mickey Spillane Yan demonstrates that the detective s truth generating function most often characterized as a process of discovery rather than creation is in fact crucial to the institutional and class based interests that he or she serves
