Two Works For Antiphonal Brab:

The Parker Society for the Publication of the Works of the Fathers and Early Writers of the Reformed English Church Parker Society (Great Britain), 1855      The Penguin Guide to Compact Discs and Dvds Yearbook 2004/5 Ivan March, Edward Greenfield, Paul Czajkowski, Robert Layton, 2004 More than an essential companion to the complete Penguin Guide to Compact Discs 1999 the Yearbook 2000 1 reviews hundreds of brand new CDs and takes a closer look at some of the more unusual areas of the classical music repertoire      Fiddler Crabs of the World Jocelyn Crane, 2015-03-08 Jocelyn Crane presents a survey of the members of the genus Uca with special reference to their morphology social behavior and evolution Her account is firmly based on numerous field studies along the world s warmer shores and on comparative work in laboratories and museums Originally published in 1975 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905      Landfall Charles Brasch, 1976      General Index to the Publications of The Parker Society Henry Gough, 2009-01-27 History The Parker Society For the Publication of the Works of the Fathers and Early Writers of the Reformed English Church was formed in 1840 and disbanded in 1855 when its work was completed Its name is taken from that of Matthew Parker the first Elizabethan Archbishop of Canterbury who was known as a great collector and preserver of books The stimulus for the foundation of the society was provided by the nineteenth Century Tractarians Some members of this movement e g R H Froude in his Remains of 1838 9 spoke most disparagingly of the English Reformation Really I hate the Reformation and the Reformers more and more Keble could add in 1838 Anything which separates the present Church from the Reformers I should hail as a great good Protestants within the Church of England therefore felt the urgent need to make available in an attractive and accessible form the works of the leaders of the English Reformation To many it seemed that the Protestant foundations of the English Church were being challenged like never before Thus the society represented a co operation between traditional High Churchmen and evangelical churchmen both of whom were committed to the Reformation teaching on justification by faith Subscribers were also involved in the erection of the Martyrs Memorial in Oxford although this was as much anti Roman Catholic as anti Tractarian The society had about seven thousand subscribers who paid one pound each year from 1841 to 1855 thus for fifteen pounds the subscribers received fifty three volumes the General Index and the Latin originals of the 1847 Original Letters relative to the English Reformation being special subscriptions Twenty four editors were used and the task of arriving at the best text was far from easy The choice of publications was controversial and some authors and works were unfortunate not to be included in PS volumes While some of the volumes have been superseded by more recent critical editions today this collection remains one of the most valuable sources for the study of the English Reformation
