Jews on the Move: Modern Cosmopolitan Thought and its Others Cathy Gelbin, Sander L. Gilman, 2019-12-18 Jewish cosmopolitanism is key to understanding both modern globalization and the old and new nationalism Jewish cultures existing in the Western world during the last two centuries have been and continue to be read as hyphenated phenomena within a specific national context such as German Jewish or American Jewish culture Yet to what extent do such nationalized constructs of Jewish culture and identity still dominate Jewish self expressions and the discourses about them in the rapidly globalizing world of the twenty first century In a world in which Diaspora societies have begun to reshape themselves as part of a super or nonnational identity what has happened to a cosmopolitan Jewish identity In a post Zionist world where one of the newest and most substantial Diaspora communities is that of Israelis in the new globalized culture is being Jewish suddenly something that can reach beyond the older models of Diasporic integration or nationalism Which new paradigms of Jewish self location within the evolving and conflicting global discourses about the nation race Genocides anti Semitism colonialism and postcolonialism gender and sexual identities does the globalization of Jewish cultures open up To what extent might transnational notions of Jewishness such as European Jewish identity create new discursive margins and centers Is there a possibility that a virtual makom Jewish space might constitute itself Recent studies on cosmopolitanism cite the Jewish experience as a key to the very notion of the movement of people for good or for ill as well as for the resurgence of modern nationalism These theories reflect newer models of postcolonialism and transnationalism in regard to global Jewish cultures The present volume spans the widest reading of Jewish cosmopolitanisms to study Jews on the move This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Review of History

If This Is a Woman Denisa Neštáková, Katja Grosse-Sommer, Borbála Klacsmann, Jakub Drábik, 2021-12-14 The present volume contains thirteen articles based on work presented at the XX Century Conference If This Is A Woman at Comenius University Bratislava in January 2019 The conference was organized against anti gender narratives and related attacks on academic freedom and women s rights currently all too prevalent in East Central Europe The papers presented at the conference and in this volume focus to a significant extent on this region They touch upon numerous points concerning gendered experiences of World War II and the Holocaust By purposely emphasizing the female experience in the title we encourage to fill the lacunae that still four decades after the enrichment of Holocaust studies with a gendered lens exist when it comes to female experiences

Writing and the Articulation of Postqualitative Research David Lee Carlson, Ananí M. Vasquez, Anna Romero, 2023-04-25 Writing and the Articulation of Postqualitative Research is a collection of experimental essays on the implications of articulating or performing qualitative research from postqualitative philosophies Although writing has been an integral part of qualitative research for better or worse throughout the history of the field the recent emergence of postqualitative inquiry necessitates a reconsideration of writing This collection of international authors explores the process and practice of writing in qualitative research from an onto epistemological perspective engaging with temporal spatial relational social cultural and affective concepts and dilemmas such as philosophical alignment advocacy in research and the privileging of written academic language for research dissemination The exploration of these questions can help qualitative researchers in the social sciences and humanities consider how modalities and processes of writing can alter shift and challenge the ways in which they articulate their research Thus rather than writing being a conveyor of the events happening during data collection or used to analyze data or display results the authors in this book consider writing as a primary agent in the research process This book has been designed for scholars in the social sciences and humanities who want to rethink how they use writing in their research endeavors and especially ones who are considering engaging with postqualitative research

Not The Same Little Boy Dr. Clifton H. Parker, 2020-11-04 The book of Genesis reveals that God formed man from the dirt and blew in him the breath of life With the breath of God Adam became a living soul In his living he was a ruler of territory through God given dominion God s love led Him to design man in the image of power and authority Satan s jealousy placed a target on the backs of men Addiction anger resentment depression low self esteem and many other spirits were unleashed on God s glory in the earth Commanded to kill steal and destroy the demonic spirits launched an all out assault While serving in the Kingdom of God I have seen firsthand this demonic influence against men Revealing the works of the devil and guiding men to deliverance became my goal Because of this I needed to reflect on my life and find any hindrance in my ability to be the man that God ordained In my search I found unresolved pain was trying to override the will of God for my life This gave me access to the keys that would unlock the jail cell of pain Who would stay in prison if they had the keys to the door With those keys in hand I went on a journey to root up anything that was in my heart mind and soul I had ignored misjudged or even forgotten Now that I have strength I want to strengthen my brothers Not The Same Little Boy Liberating Men from the Prison of Dysfunction
