Venus Envy Rita Mae Brown, 1994-01-01 At thirty five Mary Frazier Armstrong called Frazier by friends and enemies alike is a sophisticated woman with a thriving art gallery a healthy bank balance and an enviable social position In fact she has everything to live for but she's lying in a hospital bed with a morphine drip in her arm and a life expectancy measured in hours Don't die a stranger her assistant says on her last hospital visit Tell the people you love who you are And so as her last act on earth Frazier writes letters to her closest family and friends telling them exactly what she thinks of them and since she will be dead by the time they receive the letters the truth about herself she's gay The letters are sent Then the manure hits the fan in Charlottesville Virginia because the funny thing is Frazier Armstrong isn't going to die after all Subject to Display Jennifer A. Gonzalez, 2011-03-04 An exploration of the visual culture of race through the work of five contemporary artists who came to prominence during the 1990s Over the past two decades artists James Luna Fred Wilson Amalia Mesa Bains Pep n Osorio and Ren e Green have had a profound impact on the meaning and practice of installation art in the United States In Subject to Display Jennifer Gonzalez offers the first sustained analysis of their contribution linking the history and legacy of race discourse to innovations in contemporary art Race writes Gonzalez is a social discourse that has a visual history The collection and display of bodies images and artifacts in museums and elsewhere is a primary means by which a nation tells the story of its past and locates the cultures of its citizens in the present All five of the American installation artists Gonzalez considers have explored the practice of putting human subjects and their cultures on display by staging elaborate dioramas or site specific interventions in galleries and museums in doing so they have created powerful social commentary of the politics of space and the power of display in settings that mimic the very spaces they critique These artists installations have not only contributed to the transformation of contemporary art and museum culture but also linked Latino African American and Native American subjects to the broader spectrum of historical colonialism race dominance and visual culture From Luna's museum installation of his own body and belongings as artifacts and Wilson's provocative juxtapositions of museum objects to Mesa Bains's allegorical home altars Osorio's condensed spaces bedrooms living rooms barbershops prison cells and Green's genealogies of cultural contact the theoretical and critical endeavors of these artists demonstrate how race discourse is grounded in a visual technology of display
