When Addiction Comes To Church:

When Addiction Comes to Church Melinda Fish, 1990 When Hurting People Come to Church Shaunti Feldhahn, James N. Sells, 2025-09-23 People are hurting at a scale we've never seen. They're dealing with an onslaught of issues like anxiety, grief, mental illness, family troubles, and hopelessness. Pastors and counselors can't see everyone in need. This book can help. Based on national research with more than 2,000 church leaders, social researcher and bestselling author Shaunti Feldhahn and psychologist and professor Dr. James Sells show how this is the church's moment and present a tested vision that is already thriving in churches of every size across the country. We have an incredible opportunity to bring healing to the hurting, take the load off of the already too busy pastor and counselor, and grow healthy church communities of care for now and many years to come. Today we face a dramatic rise in every psychological and spiritual need just as affordable counseling solutions are more difficult to find. For perspective, 25 million people more than the population of Florida are not getting help for severe anxiety alone. Enter the church and millions of Christian lay people who understand brokenness, grace, and the power of relationship. In every community, the church has the opportunity to be a key place people go for help. In fact, church growth experts describe this type of church care ministry as the evangelism, discipleship, and church growth method of the 21st century. This book will share how this works and equip you as a busy leader to understand the mental health crisis in your community, raise up motivated lay people within the church to help address the spiritual and emotional needs of the hurting, partner with counselors and other mental health professionals, most effectively organize the church's time and resources to reach the most people while freeing you to step in where you are most needed, grow your outreach to your community. Don't miss this opportunity to meet people's needs, grow your people, and grow your church. The Resource Guide for Christian Counselors Douglas R. Flather, 1995 This referral directory gives the user immediate access to essential up-to-date Christian counseling resources. George, Warren Bird, 1994 The Coming Church Revolution describes a significant new direction in ministry that already has revolutionized congregations of all sizes around the world. Charts and vivid analogies unveil a model of ministry and a fresh attitude that stresses the importance of relationships over programs. Restoring the Wounded Woman Melinda Fish, 1993 In her speaking engagements, Fish encounters much unresolved pain that women experience because of disappointment and seemingly unanswered prayer. Divorce, the death of a loved one, and emotional strain plunge many into a state in which they cannot seem to recover. Hope, Fish weaves Biblical wisdom with detailed case studies to lead women through a gradual process of restoration.
