Site Matters Andrea Kahn, Carol J. Burns, 2020-12-21 In the era of the Anthropocene site matters are more pressing than ever Building on the concepts theories and multi disciplinary approaches raised in the first edition this publication strives to address the changes that have taken place over the last 15 years with new material to complement and re position the initial volume Reaching across design disciplines this highly illustrated anthology assembles essays from architects landscape architects urban designers planners historians and artists to explore ways to physically and conceptually engage site Thoughtful discourse and empirically grounded pieces combine to provide the language and theory to contextualize the meanings of site in the built environment The increasingly complex hybridity of constructed environments today demands new tools for thinking about and working with site Drawing contributions from outside and within the traditional design disciplines this edition will trace important developments in site thinking with new essays on topics such as climate change landscape as infrastructure shifts from global to planetary urbanization debates and the proliferation of participatory site transformation practices Edited by two leading practitioners and academics Site Matters juxtaposes timeless contributions from individuals including Elizabeth Meyer Robert Beauregard and Robin Dripps with original new writings from Peter Marcuse Jane Wolff Neil Brenner and Thaisa Way amongst others to recontextualize and reignite the debate around site An ideal text for students academics and researchers interested in site and design theory Catalogue of the University of Texas University of Texas, 1929

Chinese Heritage Sites and their Audiences Rouran Zhang, 2020-03-17 Chinese Heritage Sites and their Audiences provides a Chinese perspective on tourists relationship to heritage Contributing to ongoing debates within heritage and tourism studies the book offers insights into how and why visitors engage with such sites Drawing on interviews with domestic tourists local residents and heritage officials at the World Heritage sites of West Lake Xidi and Hongcun Zhang argues that tourists have agency when they visit heritage sites they are doing cultural social and emotional work whilst also negotiating cultural meanings Providing an examination of the complex interactions between locals and tourists the author then considers how tourists navigate and interpret heritage sites Finally Zhang examines whether the government or locally controlled tourism enterprises are more effective in facilitating meaningful cultural interaction between tourists and locals Overall the book demonstrates the interrelation between tourism and heritage and the tensions that are created when the ways in which sites are used differ from the expectations of UNESCO and national or regional site managers Chinese Heritage Sites and their Audiences pays particular attention to ongoing debates about heritage performances the importance of emotions and the agency of tourists and will thus appeal to academics and students engaged in the study of heritage tourism landscape architecture and anthropology

Architectural Intelligence Molly Wright Steenson, 2022-11-01 Architects who engaged with cybernetics artificial intelligence and other technologies poured the foundation for digital interactivity In Architectural Intelligence Molly Wright Steenson explores the work of four architects in the 1960s and 1970s who incorporated elements of interactivity into their work Christopher Alexander Richard Saul Wurman Cedric Price and Nicholas Negroponte and the MIT Architecture Machine Group all incorporated technologies including cybernetics and artificial intelligence into their work and influenced digital design practices from the late 1980s to the present day Alexander long before his famous 1977 book A Pattern Language used computation and structure to visualize design problems Wurman popularized the notion of information architecture Price designed some of the first intelligent buildings and Negroponte experimented with the ways people experience artificial intelligence even at architectural scale Steenson investigates how these architects pushed the boundaries of architecture and how their technological experiments pushed the boundaries of technology What did computational cybernetic and artificial intelligence researchers have to gain by engaging with architects and architectural problems And what was this new space that emerged within these collaborations At times Steenson writes the architects in this book characterized themselves as anti architects and their work as anti architecture The projects Steenson examines mostly did not result in constructed buildings but rather in design processes and tools computer programs interfaces digital environments Alexander Wurman Price and Negroponte laid the foundation for many of our contemporary interactive practices from information architecture to interaction design from machine learning to smart cities

Mimbres Archaeology of the Upper Gila, New Mexico Stephen H. Lekson, 1990 This reappraisal of archaeology conducted at the Saige McFarland site presents for the first time a substantial body of comparative data from a Mimbres period site in the Gila drainage Lekson offers a new and controversial interpretation of the Mimbres sequence reintroducing the concept of the Mangas phase first proposed by the Gila Pueblo investigations of the 1930s and demonstrating a more gradual shift from pithouse to pueblo occupation than has been suggested previously

American Architect and the Architectural Review, 1901

Think Like an Architect Hal Box, 2007-05-01 The design of cities and buildings affects the quality of our lives Making the built environment useful safe comfortable efficient and as beautiful as possible is a universal quest We dream about how we might live work and play From these dreams come some 95 percent of all private and public buildings professional architects design only about 5 percent of the built environment While much of what non architects build is beautiful and useful the ugliness and inconveniences that blight many urban areas demonstrate that an understanding of good architectural design is vital for creating livable buildings and public spaces To help promote this understanding among non architects as well as among those considering architecture as a profession award winning architect and professor Hal Box explains the process of making architecture from concept to completed building using real life examples to illustrate the principles involved in designing buildings that enhance the quality of life for those who live with them To cause what we build to become architecture we have three choices hire an architect become an architect or learn to think like an architect Box believes that everyone should be involved in making architecture and has organized this book as a series of letters to friends and students about the process of creating architecture He describes what architecture should be and do how to look at and appreciate good buildings and how to understand the design process work with an architect or become an architect He also provides an overview of architectural history with lists of books to read and buildings to see For those involved in building projects Box offers practical guidance about what goes into constructing a building from the first view of the site to the finished building For students thinking of becoming architects he describes an architect s typical training and career path And for the wide public audience interested in architecture and the built environment Box addresses how architecture relates to the city where the art of architecture is headed and why good architecture matters

The Top Books of the Year Sites Architecture 26 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Sites Architecture 26 : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Sites Architecture 26 : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
