Situating The Self:

Situating the Self Seyla Benhabib, 2013-08-26 Focusing on contemporary debates in moral and political theory Situating the Self argues that a non relative ethics binding on us in virtue of our humanity is still a philosophically viable project This interesting new book should be read by all those concerned with the problems of critical theory the analysis of modernity and contemporary ethics as well as students and professionals in philosophy sociology and political science Self-Deception's Puzzles and Processes Jason Kido Lopez, 2016-08-16 The contemporary literature on self deception was born out of Jean Paul Sartre's work on bad faith lying to oneself As time has progressed the conception of self deception has moved further and further away from Sartre's conception of bad faith In Self Deception's Puzzles and Processes A Return to a Sartrean View Jason Kido Lopez argues that this departure is a mistake and that we should return to thinking about self deception in a Sartrean fashion in which we are self deceived when we intentionally use the strategies and methods of interpersonal deception on ourselves Since literally tricking ourselves cannot work we will always see through our own self deception after all self deception merely consists of the attempt to trick ourselves in this way Other scholars have rejected this notion of self deception historically dismissing it as paradoxical Lopez argues first that it isn't paradoxical and he further suggests that moving away from this notion of self deception has caused the contemporary literature on the topic to be littered with disparate and conflicting theories Indeed there are a great many ways to avoid the allegedly paradoxical Sartrean notion of self deception and the resulting plethora of accounts lead to a fragmented picture of self deception If however the Sartrean view isn't paradoxical then there was no need for the host of contradictory theories and most researchers on self deception have missed what was originally so intriguing about self deception that it like bad faith is the process of literally trying to trick oneself into believing what is false or unwarranted Self Deception's Puzzles and Processes will be of great interest to students and scholars of epistemology philosophy of mind psychology and continental philosophy and to anyone else interested in the problems of self deception Exploring Self toward expanding Teaching, Teacher Education and Practitioner Research Oren Ergas, Jason K Ritter, 2020-10-29 Against the backdrop of a pull toward external standards and accountability this collection of chapters re grounds us in the importance of bringing the self to the foreground of the discourse of teaching teacher education and practitioner research Self-Study of Practice as a Genre of Qualitative Research Stefinee Pinnegar, Mary Lynn Hamilton, 2009-04-05 Teacher educators live hectic lives at institutional and discipline boundaries Our greatest potential for influence is through developing relationships with others in our practice Our work is fundamentally relational and emotional We are obligated to the teachers we teach and the public students they teach Our practice exists in the midst of experience conflicting and often hostile boundaries and between what we know from research and what we understand from practice Self study of practice invites researchers to embrace the hectic and fragmented territory of practice as the space for study This book educates those who would like to explore practice in the methodology of self study It provides both a pragmatic and theoretic guide It grounds the research in ontology and establishes dialogue as the inquiry process It supports researchers through the use of frameworks to guide research and explication of strategies for conducting it Self-Concept Clarity Jennifer Lodi-Smith, Kenneth G. DeMarree, 2018-01-03 This welcome resource traces the evolution of self concept clarity and brings together diverse strands of research on this important and still developing construct Locating self concept clarity within current models of personality identity and the self expert contributors define the construct and its critical roles in both individual and collective identity and functioning The book examines commonly used measures for assessing clarity particularly in relation to the more widely understood concept of self esteem with recommendations for best practices in assessment In addition a wealth of current data highlights the links between self concept clarity and major areas of mental wellness and dysfunction from adaptation and leadership to body image issues and schizophrenia Along the way it outlines important future directions in research on self concept clarity Included in the coverage Situating self concept clarity in the landscape of personality Development of self concept clarity across the lifespan Self concept clarity and romantic relationships Who am I and why does it matter Linking personal identity and self concept clarity Consequences of self concept clarity for well being and motivation Self concept clarity and psychopathology Self Concept Clarity fills varied theoretical empirical and practical needs across mental health fields and will enhance the work of academics psychologists interested in the construct as an area of research and clinicians working with clients struggling with developing and improving their self concept clarity

On Feminist Ethics and Politics
Claudia Card, 1999 For years mainstream feminist ethics focused criticism on male supremacy Feminist philosophers in this volume adopt a less male focused stance to look closely at oppression s impact on women s agency and on women s relations with women Examining legal social and physical relationships these philosophers confront moral ambiguity moral compromise and complicity in perpetuating oppression Combining personal experience with philosophical inquiry they vividly portray their daily engagement with oppression as both victims and perpetrators They explore such issues as how pornography silences women and radical feminist politics complicity in racism Among these insightful essays Sandra Bartky argues that women share guilt for racism when they benefit from it without protest Susan Brison reflects on uses of narrative in trauma recovery from such experiences as being targeted for rape or murder Joan Callahan examines fallout of derogatory speech directed at lesbians Virginia Held proposes carrying care into marketplaces and governments and in her introduction Claudia Card draws on Primo Levi s conception of gray zones in exploring dangers of character damage to victims of misogyny A fitting companion to Card s highly regarded Feminist Ethics this volume interweaves observations on character political ethics violence and love into an accessible sourcebook for students It tackles some of feminism s most pressing issues and helps readers to identify and then overcome the real damage caused by oppression

Self-Construction and the Formation of Human Values Teodros Kiros,1998-11-19 This volume presents a theoretical defense of the potential of ordinary individuals to construct values and through them to become self empowering responsible participants in a democratic community Rather than conceiving of power as domination the author identifies true power as self empowerment a notion based on self construction He proposes the vision of an authentically free self filled with a compassion that is a composite of reason and feeling Such a composite self does not consciously manipulate language truth and desire to dominate and subordinate other individuals but uses them to construct values and norms that can enrich others To support his argument the author draws on both classical and contemporary philosophers as well as on literary sources
