Superhuman II:

The Meaning of Life and Death Michael Hauskeller, 2019-09-19 What is the point of living If we are all going to die anyway if nothing will remain of whatever we achieve in this life why should we bother trying to achieve anything in the first place Can we be mortal and still live a meaningful life Questions such as these have been asked for a long time but nobody has found a conclusive answer yet The connection between death and meaning however has taken centre stage in the philosophical and literary work of some of the world's greatest writers Fyodor Dostoyevsky Leo Tolstoy Soren Kierkegaard Arthur Schopenhauer Herman Melville Friedrich Nietzsche William James Ludwig Wittgenstein Marcel Proust and Albert Camus This book explores their ideas weaving a rich tapestry of concepts voices and images helping the reader to understand the concerns at the heart of those writers work and uncovering common themes and stark contrasts in their understanding of what kind of world we live in and what really matters in life

Loeb proposes a fresh account of the relation between the book's literary and philosophical aspects and argues that the book's narrative is designed to embody and exhibit the truth of eternal recurrence Loeb shows how Nietzsche constructed a unified and complete plot in which the protagonist dies experiences a deathbed revelation of his endlessly repeating life and then returns to his identical life so as to recollect this revelation and gain a power over time that advances him beyond the human Through close textual analysis and careful attention to Nietzsche's use of Platonic biblical and Wagnerian themes Loeb explains how this novel design is the key to solving the many riddles of Thus Spoke Zarathustra including its controversial fourth part its obscure concept of the bermensch and its relation to Nietzsche's Genealogy of Morals
