The Black Military Academy on the James River Robert A. Walker, Jr., 2024-07-31 Walker covers a tremendous amount of historical and personal territory in this tribute to this unique aspect of Virginia history Although the narrative jumps around Walker s passion is obvious and the autobiographical sections of the book never trump close attention to historical detail Although self published this is a book that would behoove Virginians to read closely and claim proudly as their own Valley Haggard Style Weekly Codex
