The Sound Of Strings:

The Sound of Strings Damien Escobar, Lasette Canady, Janet Bradley, 2014-03-21 The Sound of Strings is an inspiring and imaginative autobiographical tale told through the eyes of a young Damien Escobar now two time Emmy Award winning violinist The story begins when Damien is assigned the violin in music class Like any eight year old he doesn't accept what is given to him instead he can't help but wonder what it would be like to play the drums like his friend Kimora or the piano like Kaydence He even tries to switch instruments with his classmate Tyris because as he argued anyone could see that the rock star guitar was better suited for him But at the end of the class period Damien is stuck with his assigned set of strings No one including Damien could see what an instrumental part this violin would play in his life And as Damien reluctantly closes up the case to take home his journey of self exploration unfolds The Sound of Strings is a coming of age story that with a little bit of humor encourages kids to be confident and comfortable with who they are and all that they do The Violinist, 1919
